FORTY-FIRST REPORT OF THE INSPECTORS OF PRISONS.

I.—SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE R. A. CROSS, M.P.,
&c. &c. &c.,
Secretary of State for the Home Department.

SIR,

March 1877.

I HAVE the honour to submit my Annual Report on the Prisons of the Southern District, being a part of the Forty-first Report of the Inspectors of Prisons for the year ending 29th September 1876.

The Report on each prison shows the accommodation for prisoners in cells, certified and uncertified; the total population of the prisons on the 29th September 1875; the number of admissions and discharges, and total number remaining in prison on the 29th September 1876; the average daily number of prisoners in custody; the average daily number for the preceding five years; the greatest number at any one time during the year; the average greatest number, taken from the greatest number at any one time during each of the preceding five years; the number of recommitments during the year of criminals known to have been previously imprisoned at any time in any gaol; also a table giving the number of persons sentenced to different periods of imprisonment during the year, and how employed while in prison, with an account of the earnings of prisoners in their several employments.

The following are the principal alterations, additions, and new buildings that have been made or are in progress, viz. :

Birmingham Borough Prison.—A division of the basement is in progress of being converted into cells, as additional accommodation for prisoners is very much required.

Bristol City Prison.—A new prison capable of containing the prisoners of this gaol and those of the City Bridewell, which latter prison would have been closed, was about to be erected at Horfield, plans for such new prison having met with approval, and the boundary wall round the site of the intended new prison is finished, but all further work has been stopped, as the gaol authorities do not intend proceeding further with the building of the prison pending the result of the Prisons Bill now before Parliament.

Bury St. Edmunds.—The old prison for females, which was external to the walls of the male prison, has been pulled down, and the female prisoners are now located in a separate wing of the male prison.

Cardiff County Prison.—A new female gaol, containing 90 cells, and a new chapel have been built, and alterations in the central hall of the old gaol are in progress, which, when completed, will give additional accommodation for the warders, male prisoners, and the sick. When the female prisoners are moved into the new building, the wing, containing 48 cells, now occupied by them, will become available for male prisoners.

Lewes County Prison.—A new work shed in separate compartments has been built, in which will be carried on as much of the industrial labour as its size will permit.

Oxford County Prison.—An old and unused building has been converted into an infirmary, to contain eight beds.

Portsmouth Borough Prison.—A new prison is fast approaching completion.

Swansea County Prison.—New apartments for the matron, and nine additional cells for females have been constructed.

The general state of the prisoners as to health has been satisfactory, and no prison of the district has been visited by epidemic disease of consequence, save the County Prison at Norwich, in which small-pox was introduced by a prisoner from Manchester in January, and during the month of February following eleven other prisoners were attacked with the disease, but by taking every possible means of preventing any further extension of the disease, no fresh cases occurred.

With a few exceptions, as shown in the accompanying Report, the secular instruction of all uneducated prisoners is attended to.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,

HENRY BRISCOE.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Tread-wheel and crank labour. The tread-wheel has accommodation for 12 prisoners, employed thereon for six hours daily, ascending 1 mile 2 furlongs and 23 yards. Prisoners at the cranks perform 10,000 revolutions per diem, with a resistance in proportion to the prisoner's strength.

There are sufficient means of enforcing labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Bread and beef are obtained by contract. Eight prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

PUNISHMENTS FOR PRISON OFFENCES.

Stoppage of diet - 9

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; reads prayers and visits prisoners in their cells daily. Those prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average 12 hours secular instruction each week.

The surgeon attends regularly twice a week, and oftener if required; he states that the general health of the prisoners has been good, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are good and quite sufficient for maintaining the health of the prisoners engaged at hard labour. Bedding and clothing sufficient. Two prisoners, insane on admission, were removed to the Denbigh Asylum. Seventeen prisoners were treated during the year, six of whom were infirm cases.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Weaving with heavy looms, mat-making, rope dressing with heavy beater, crank shot drill, and pumping water.

Prisoners employed at hard labour machines perform 14,000 revolutions per diem, the weights reduced to a minimum.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour according to the numbers sentenced, and with the exception of three men who are employed in the male washhouses partly under supervision, and those associated on medical grounds, or when the prison happens to be overcrowded, the prisoners as a general rule are under efficient supervision.

Prisoners are allowed to participate, under certain fixed rules, in the profits of their labour, and good conduct badges are issued to them in various stages of their imprisonment. These badges are prized, and the plan acts as a strong incentive to good conduct.

Provisions and stores are supplied, as far as practicable, by contract. 102 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon, and 27 prisoners on discharge received assistance from a prisoners aid society.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by every convicted prisoner not exceeding 55 years of age during the whole of his sentence when it does not exceed one month, by prisoners under punishment for prison offences, and by every convicted prisoner whose sentence exceeds one month during the first month of such sentence, subject to the opinion of the medical officer.

PUNISHMENTS FOR PRISON OFFENCES.

	163	—

There are two full services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are read daily to the prisoners by the chaplain, with a short exposition of Scripture.

Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their respective persuasions.

Each prisoner after the first three months attends school twice a week, for three quarters of an hour each time.

The surgeon attends daily at the prison; every prisoner is visited twice a week, and the sick every day; he reports that the general health at the present time is very good; during the early part of the year there were many severe cases of diarrhoea and five of typhoid fever, but some defect in the drains having been remedied, there has been no recurrence for several months; the provisions are of good quality, the general dietary sufficient, and not more than sufficient; an additional allowance has sometimes been found requisite in cases of prisoners sentenced to long terms.

There were five deaths from natural causes, one prisoner received a pardon on medical grounds, and one lunatic, insane on admission, was removed to Fisherton. Average daily number of infirmary cases $\frac{360}{365}$; treated in cells and excused labour $3\frac{1}{3}\frac{0}{8}$; and not excused labour $1\frac{1}{3}\frac{0}{8}$.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day, and reads prayers daily to the prisoners, giving also short addresses on Wednesdays, Fridays, and holidays. At their own expressed wish, prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their several persuasions, but only some Roman Catholics avail themselves of the privilege, the rest are content with the chaplain's ministrations. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average three hours secular instruction per week.

The surgeon visits the prison daily, examines all prisoners on admission, and sees every prisoner once a week; he states that the general condition of the prisoners as to health has been very good; that the provisions are of good quality, and sufficient to maintain the health and strength of prisoners engaged at hard labour, with very few exceptions; clothing and bedding sufficient. One person died a few hours after admission, from natural causes; and one lunatic, insane on admission, was removed to Moulshord.

Average daily number in infirmary $\frac{52}{888}$; average daily number treated in cells and excused labour $1\frac{80}{888}$; average daily number treated and not excused labour $4\frac{326}{888}$.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

The tread-wheel, hand corn-mills, pumping water by crank, and weaving matting.

The tread-wheel accommodates 24 prisoners, employed thereon for six hours daily; ascent from 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ miles to 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract. 21 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon. Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by such prisoners as the visiting justices may order, for periods not exceeding one month at a time.

PUNISHMENTS FOR PRISON OFFENCES.

154 county and 102 military prisoners confined to own cells, or dark cell on punishment diet, and two military prisoners were whipped with the "cat."

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are read daily to the prisoners by the chaplain, or during his absence on leave, by the schoolmaster. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can, on making the request, be visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Prisoners committed for less than seven weeks receive no secular instruction; those committed for longer periods receive cellular instruction for about half an hour per week.

The surgeon attends daily to visit the sick and to examine prisoners on admission and discharge; twice a week to examine every prisoner; and once a month to do so in company with the governor and matron respectively. He states that the general health of the prisoners has been as good as in the previous year, although 25 per cent. were in bad health or sick on committal. That there has been no epidemic disease; the provisions of good quality, and the general dietary sufficient, but not more than sufficient; clothing and bedding sufficient. There were three deaths from natural causes, and two cases of insanity, both indicating a tendency thereto on committal. One soon recovered in the gaol; the other was removed to an asylum. There were but three cases treated in the infirmary, none remaining therein more than a week. Average daily number treated in their cells and excused labour 3·84; average daily number treated and not excused from labour 3·1.

There are two services on Sundays, and one on Good Friday and Christmas Day, and prayers are read daily by the chaplain.

On making a special request, all prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can see their own ministers.

The turnkey and matron, who act as schoolmaster and schoolmistress, carry on the same system as heretofore, and each uneducated prisoner receives on an average about one hour's secular instruction daily.

The surgeon attends three times a week, and oftener if necessary; he reports that the general condition of the prisoners as to health has been good; that there has been no epidemic disease; that the provisions are good; the general dietary sufficient for maintaining the health and strength of all the prisoners, and the clothing and bedding satisfactory. One death occurred, a prisoner's child three months old. There have not been any prisoners treated in the infirmary, except one woman, childbirth. Five male prisoners have been treated in their cells and excused labour, and eight treated and not excused labour during the year.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

The tread-wheel, pumping water for the use of the gaol and sessions house adjoining the prison, and crank labour. Prisoners on the wheel are employed for six hours daily, and ascend 8,100 feet, prisoners at the cranks perform 10,800 revolutions per diem, the pressure being nominal.

There are sufficient means for enforcing hard labour, and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract. Five prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

PUNISHMENTS FOR PRISON OFFENCES.

Nil.

The governor states that the prisoners have been uniformly well conducted during the year.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their several persuasions.

No time is specially set apart for secular instruction, but it is given at times when the prisoners are not otherwise employed, the turnkeys giving the instruction.

The surgeon attends two or three times a week, and oftener if required; he states that the prisoners have been remarkably healthy; that there has been no epidemic; provisions, diet, clothing, and bedding good and sufficient. There was one death from natural causes, and one prisoner received a pardon on medical grounds.

The following are the prescribed rates of diet, viz. :—

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day, and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners differing from the Established Church see their respective ministers, if they desire it. Each uneducated prisoner receives about one hour's secular instruction every alternate evening.

The surgeon attends twice weekly, and upon all other necessary occasions; he reports that the prisoners are healthy, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are excellent in quality, and sufficient, but not more than sufficient, for maintaining the health and strength of those engaged at hard labour. Clothing and bedding good and sufficient. There was one death from natural causes and one case of suicide. The average daily number of patients in the infirmary was $\frac{109}{88}$; no prisoner was excused from labour on account of sickness; and the daily average number was two.

The following are the prescribed rates of diet, viz. :—

The treadmill, accommodating nine prisoners; average number of hours prisoners are employed thereon about 8½, and the distance ascended about 10,000 feet. Stone-breaking, the task being about one bushel a day.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour according to numbers sentenced, but the prisoners are in association in day room for meals and after labour hours, the cells being neither lighted, warmed, nor ventilated.

Provisions and stores are, as far as practicable, supplied by contract.

Fifteen males and six females received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

The tread-wheel, accommodating 19 prisoners, employed thereon for nine months about ten hours per diem, ascent 9,600 feet, and for the rest of the year eight hours, ascent 7,600 feet. Water to supply the prison is pumped from a well by the tread-wheel. Occasional stone-breaking, half a yard, broken somewhat small, being the daily task.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions are principally supplied by contract; fuel is not, it having been found more advantageous to purchase it by truck load at market price.

Three prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by prisoners for the first 14 days after conviction.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Prisoners awaiting trial, and convicted prisoners who have undergone two calendar months of their sentence, are allowed two hours per week secular instruction.

The surgeon attends at the prison two or three times a week; he states that the prisoners enjoy fair average health, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality, the general dietary sufficient, and not more than sufficient, for maintaining the health and strength of those engaged at hard labour, and that the clothing and bedding are sufficient. There was one death from natural causes. One prisoner passed through his term of imprisonment who was suffering from senile imbecility on admission. Average daily number treated in the infirmary $\frac{96}{385}$, and about two more treated in cells but not excused labour (except the tread-wheel).

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are daily read by the deputy chaplain. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average five hours secular instruction a week.

The surgeon attends twice a week, and as often as may be required; he states that the general health of the prisoners has been very good, that the prison has not been visited by any epidemic disease; and that the dietary, clothing, and bedding are everything that can be possibly desired. One lunatic, insane on admission, was removed to the county asylum at Denbigh.

Only two prisoners (childbirth) were admitted into the infirmary.

Average daily number treated in their cells and excused labour 3; average daily number treated and not excused labour $\frac{162}{88}$.

Prisoners for trial, destitute debtors, and others not specially provided for, to have the Third Class Diet.

Prisoners awarded punishments by the gaoler for prison offences, for periods not exceeding Three Days inclusive, according to the Act, to have one pound of bread per diem.

Prisoners not sentenced to hard labour, who, in the opinion of the Governor, are very idle, to have the class of diet next preceding that they are then on, until they perform their labour to the satisfaction of the Governor. Industrious prisoners may, at the discretion of the Visiting Justices, in addition to the diet set forth in the Tables, have the following extra diet, viz., 4 oz. bread daily, and $\frac{1}{2}$ pint soup on Mondays and Fridays.

NOTE.—The soup to contain, per pint, 2 oz. raw meat without bone, 3 oz. peas, with vegetables, pepper, and salt.

The gruel to contain, per pint, 2 oz. oatmeal, seasoned with salt.

All prisoners who earn a good mark daily, from Monday to Saturday, shall have the extra diet provided by the Dietary Tables for industrious prisoners, during the following week ; or if any prisoners shall not have been under the marking system a full week, but have been placed under it to any day in the week not later than Wednesday, and shall earn one good mark daily up to the Saturday following, they shall, in like manner, have such extra diet during the following week, always provided that the same is not forfeited by misconduct.

In Classes III., IV., and V. industrious prisoners have the opportunity of receiving the extra diet after not less than six weeks imprisonment.

The chaplain performs one full service on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are read by him on Wednesdays and Fridays, with a sermon in Welsh on one of these days, when there are Welsh prisoners who do not understand English. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives six hours secular instruction per week, and 12 hours are allowed for self-improvement.

The surgeon attends almost daily; he states that the condition and health of the prisoners improve after a short residence in gaol; that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are good and not more than sufficient for maintaining the health and strength of the prisoners, and that whenever he finds either clothing or bedding deficient he orders extra. There was one death from natural causes.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

By hard labour machines, 10,000 revolutions per diem, with a resistance of eight pounds, being the task required.

There are sufficient means for enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract. Eleven prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used for one month by prisoners who have been previously convicted.

PUNISHMENTS FOR PRISON OFFENCES.

There are two services performed on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day, and prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their own denomination, but such privilege has not been asked during the past year. Roman Catholics and Dissenters have all willingly attended the services, and gladly welcomed the visits of the chaplain.

Each uneducated prisoner has been allowed an hour daily, or six hours weekly, for mental improvement, of which one hour and a half per week is devoted to receiving instruction from the schoolmaster.

The prison is visited daily, Sundays excepted, by the surgeon, and each prisoner is seen separately once a week. Every prisoner is examined on admission. The surgeon states that the general health of the prisoners has been good, that there has been no epidemic disease. One case of "typhoid" occurred, but so shortly after admission that it was in all probability contracted previously. Provisions of good quality, and generally sufficient; clothing and bedding also sufficient.

One male prisoner, found to be insane on admission, was removed to an asylum.

Average daily number in infirmary .41; average daily number sick excused labour .32 average daily number sick not excused labour 1.84.

There is one service on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are read occasionally during the week by the chaplain. Every prisoner not of the Established Church has the privilege of being visited by his or her respective minister. Prisoners are taught to read and write, when necessary, by the warder.

The surgeon attends two or three times a week, and as often as required; he states that the prisoners have been healthy, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are good and sufficient; clothing and bedding sufficient.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, Christmas Day, and Ascension Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Those prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average $2\frac{1}{2}$ hours secular instruction per week.

The surgeon attends the prisoner almost daily, and sees every prisoner on admission and once a week afterwards. He states that the health of the prisoners generally has been fairly maintained, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are good; that the 1st and 2nd class hard labour diet has been increased; that the clothing and bedding are sufficient. There were two deaths from natural causes; and one escaped lunatic, insane on admission, was sent to the county asylum.

Average daily number treated in infirmary 4; average daily number treated in their cells but not excused labour $\frac{177}{65}$.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Crank and tread-wheel, pumping water. The wheel accommodating 44 prisoners, employed thereon for six hours daily, ascent 2,400 yards. Stone-breaking occasionally, for the use of the gaol only.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are as much as possible under supervision.

Prisoners are allowed to participate to a certain extent in the profits of their labour, and the system works very satisfactorily.

Provisions and stores are partly supplied by contract. 62 males and 14 females received extra diet by order of the surgeon. On discharge from prison 72 males and 7 females received assistance from a Prisoners' Aid Society.

do so. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average 20 minutes secular instruction per week.

The surgeon attends daily, and sees every prisoner once a week; he states that the general health of the prisoners has been good, that no epidemic has occurred; that the provisions (with some exceptions) are of good quality and sufficient in quantity; clothing and bedding sufficient. One female, insane subsequent to admission, was removed to the county asylum; and an aged man, with harmless delusions, is retained in prison.

Average daily number treated in the infirmary 2; total number treated in cells and excused labour 306; daily average treated and not excused labour 7.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

By the tread-wheel, which accommodates 18 prisoners, 12 working and six resting. The wheel is worked about nine hours each week, and the height ascended during that time will be about 18,000 feet. Digging, wheeling, and other similar hard bodily labour in the prison grounds.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are, as far as practicable, under supervision.

Prisoners are allowed to participate in the profits of their labour to the extent of about 12 or 14 per cent., and the plan is considered a good one and works satisfactorily.

During the night of the 8th October 1875, two male prisoners, by opening the "catch" of the ration trap, and removing the screws of the cell lock, and finally scaling the boundary wall, effected their escape from prison; no night watchman being employed.

A cross-bar, with a spring catch, has since been fitted to each ration trap in the male prison, to prevent the possibility of their being opened from the inside, and the old fashioned screws have been removed from the cell locks and others of a superior pattern substituted.

Part of the prison stores are supplied by contract, some of the provisions are grown in the prison garden, and some are contracted for.

36 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The chaplain performs one service, with sermon, on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers to the prisoners three days a week. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average two hours secular instruction per week.

The surgeon attends daily, and every prisoner is visited and examined once a week, and oftener if required; he states that there has been no epidemic disease during the year; that the general health of the prisoners has been good; that the food is good and sufficient, clothing and bedding sufficient and clean. One prisoner committed suicide by hanging.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

The tread-wheel, matting, and mat-making by hand looms, and stone-breaking for the purpose of repairing the gaol path. The tread-wheel accommodates 62 prisoners, employed thereon eight hours daily in summer and seven in winter, ascent 9,600 feet per diem.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to the number sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract; except bread, which is made in the prison. Eight males and seven females received extra diet during illness, and eight males and one female on account of long sentences. On discharge from prison, 192 prisoners received assistance from a Prisoners' Aid Society.

A new gaol for female prisoners, containing 90 cells, is finished. A new chapel for both sexes is likewise finished; and alterations are now proceeding in the central hall of old gaol, which, when complete, will give additional accommodation for the warders, male prisoners, and sick. When the female prisoners are moved into the new building, the wing, containing 48 cells, now occupied by them, will be available for the males.

The chapel having been taken down in order to carry on the new building now in course of erection, and the new chapel not having been completed, daily prayers have not been said since the 4th July last. On Sunday morning and evening prayers are said, and the sermons preached in the wing. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their several persuasions, but only Roman Catholics avail themselves of this privilege.

As there is no regular schoolmaster employed, only a small number of prisoners sentenced to long terms of imprisonment receive secular instruction. On an average about one hour per week is given to each male prisoner. Female prisoners receive no secular instruction.

The surgeon attends the prison daily, or as often as prevalence of sickness renders necessary. He reports that the general health of the prisoners has been good, that there has been no visitation of epidemic disease; that the provisions are of good quality, the general dietary sufficient, and not more than sufficient, to maintain the health and strength of prisoners; clothing and bedding sufficient. There were three deaths from natural causes, and one by misadventure. One prisoner received a pardon on medical grounds. There were two cases of lunacy, one insane on admission, the other became so after completing nine out of twelve months sentence, and was sent to the county asylum.

Average daily number treated in infirmary $3\frac{1}{8}$; average daily number treated in cells $10\frac{1}{8}$; average daily number treated and not excused labour $3\frac{1}{8}$, including prisoners awaiting trial.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Stone-breaking and the tread-wheel, but the wheel is out of repair; and there is not sufficient means of enforcing hard labour. Prisoners employed at stone-breaking are not tasked, but they are under the supervision of an officer while thus employed.

A new prison, capable of containing the prisoners of this gaol and those of the City Bridewell, which latter prison would have been closed, was about to be erected at Horfield, and the boundary wall round the site of the intended new prison is finished; but it is not the intention of the prison authorities to proceed further, pending the result of the Prisons Bill before Parliament.

The organ in the chapel is the property of the governor, as also the portable seats, clock, and escutcheons.

With the exception of meat, which is supplied by contract, all articles are purchased by the direction of the visiting justices. 52 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon. Plank bedsteads without mattresses are only used by prisoners when under punishment for prison offences. 35 prisoners on discharge received assistance from a Prisoners' Aid Society.

PUNISHMENTS FOR PRISON OFFENCES.

Stoppage of diet - - - 195

There are two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day, the males attending one, the females the other; and prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can see their own ministers. Each uneducated prisoner receives about one hour secular instruction per week, which, in the case of the females, is often exceeded, but not with the males.

The surgeon visits the prison and sees the prisoners every day, except Sundays; he states that the health of the prisoners has been very good during the year, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality, and sufficient, but not more than sufficient; clothing and bedding sufficient. There were two deaths from natural causes, and one execution. One male prisoner has simulated insanity since his conviction, and is still in the prison.

Daily average number in infirmary, one; daily average number treated in cells and excused labour, two; daily average number treated and not excused labour, three.

The tread-wheel, accommodating 48 prisoners, distance ascended per diem under 12,000 feet. Crank and cellular machine, 16,000 revolutions per diem, with a nominal resistance, and stone-breaking when required for prison use.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions and stores, with the exception of wheat, are obtained by contract. 49 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by prisoners for one month after conviction, or until 30 marks be gained.

One convict escaped from the court house, having been left unwatched for a few minutes, during the relief of a warder; he took advantage of an unprotected window in the basement. The defect in the building has been securely remedied. On discharge from prison 201 prisoners received assistance from a Prisoners' Aid Society.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day, and reads prayers daily to the prisoners; at the same time reads the Scriptures with an exposition or sermon. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their several persuasions.

The hours for school are from 6 p.m. to 8.30 p.m. on five evenings of the week; all prisoners whose terms of imprisonment exceed one month are required to attend. The attendance is arranged in regular rotation. The average number of hours that secular instruction is given to each prisoner attending school will be about three hours per week.

The surgeon attends daily; he states that the general condition of the prisoners as to health has been very good, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality and the dietary sufficient with occasional extras. The clothing and bedding are sufficient.

There were three deaths from natural causes, and one case of suicide. One prisoner, insane on admission, was sent to asylum.

The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was less than one, and the average daily number treated in their cells and excused labour was three.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, and one on Good Friday and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions. No secular instruction is given to the prisoners.

The surgeon attends daily (Sundays excepted), and frequently pays a second visit of an evening when required; he sees every prisoner once or twice a week, and those requesting to see him, every day; he states that the prisoners have been remarkably healthy, that there has been no epidemic during the year; that the provisions are invariably good in quality and quite sufficient to sustain the necessary strength of the prisoners at hard labour. The clothing and bedding are ample, and when necessary more is ordered. One death occurred from natural causes. One male and one female, insane on admission, were subsequently removed to asylums. During the year there were five cases (three males and two females) requiring removal to the infirmary, and these only for short periods.

The average daily number treated in their cells and excused labour was two, and the average daily number treated and not excused labour was one.

The chaplain performs one service on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day ; and reads prayers to the prisoners on Tuesdays and Fridays. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by their respective ministers. Uneducated prisoners have not the advantage of secular instruction.

The surgeon examines all the inmates twice a week and attends to pass in prisoners when required ; he states that the general health of the prisoners has been good, that there has been no epidemic ; that the diet, clothing, and bedding are sufficient, but not more than sufficient. Fifty-four cases have been treated in their cells, none in the infirmary, and only one excused labour.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. On application to the governor any prisoner not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by a ministers of his own persuasion. Each uneducated prisoner receives one hour's secular instruction daily (Sunday excepted), if the sentence be for two months and upwards, if for a shorter period, the instruction is at the discretion of the governor and chaplain; and every prisoner is allowed two hours leisure for self-instruction in the evening, books being supplied from the prison library.

The surgeon attends almost always three times daily, and oftener if required; each prisoner is examined twice a week, also on admission and discharge; he states that the general condition of prisoners, considering the class from which they come, is good, that there has been no epidemic disease; that the provisions are of good quality, the dietary sufficient, but not more than sufficient; bedding sufficient; but the clothing has often to be supplemented by a flannel shirt.

The admissions to the infirmary and also of those daily treated in cells is a fraction of one.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners who are Roman Catholics are visited by their priest (subject to the prison rules) at such times as he may arrange. Prisoners of other persuasions can see their ministers on making application. The school is carried on under an appointed master every week day evening for two hours, at which six prisoners attend daily. By this arrangement about 30 prisoners receive instruction weekly for two hours. A few, who are very backward in the rudiments of education, and to whom further teaching appears likely to prove beneficial, are allowed to attend school twice or thrice a week.

The surgeon attends daily; he states that the general condition of the health of the prisoners has been satisfactory, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions have been good, and the diet adequate for the work of the establishment. Bedding and clothing sufficient.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS

The tread-wheel, loom weaving, making mats on a frame with a beater of 5 lbs. weight, work at shearing machines, beating oakum and rope, stone-breaking, and capstan; 140 prisoners can be employed at the treadwheel, 70 on the wheel and 70 resting, each prisoner being employed thereon four hours daily, and ascending during that time about 7,680 feet.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced, and prisoners are, as far as possible, under supervision, but a good deal of communication occurs in the day cells. Prisoners are allowed to participate in the profits of their labour to a certain extent, and the plan works satisfactorily.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract, excepting bread. Wheat is bought, and made into flour and bread in the prison. 124 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon; and 115 on discharge received assistance from a Prisoners' Aid Society.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. All prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. A male prisoner who desires secular instruction attends school sometimes for 1½ hours, sometimes for 3 hours per week. A class consists of a number not exceeding 30 prisoners. Boys and prisoners before trial receive instruction for 4½ hours a week. The female prisoners receive instruction for three hours per week.

The surgeon or his substitute attends twice daily to examine the prisoners on admission and in the hospital. The surgeon also makes a monthly inspection of all the prisoners; he states that the general condition of the health of the prisoners has been good during the past year, that the prison has not been visited by any epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality, and that the general dietary is sufficient, and not more than sufficient, for maintaining the health and strength of the prisoners, especially of those engaged at hard labour; the clothing and bedding sufficient. There were 13 deaths from natural causes, two executions. One prisoner received pardon on medical grounds. And there were ten cases of lunacy, two insane on admission, and eight subsequently became so.

Average daily number treated in infirmary, $14\frac{1}{3}\frac{1}{8}$.
 Average daily number treated in cells and excused labour, none. Average daily number treated and not excused labour, $12\frac{1}{8}\frac{0}{8}$.

The chaplain performs one service on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can, if they desire it, be visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average two hours secular instruction per week.

The surgeon attends three times a week, and as often as required. He states that the prisoners are generally of feeble health and cachectic, many of them the subject of syphilitic and parasitic disease; that there has been no zymotic disease since the reconstruction of the gaol; that the provisions are excellent and the dietary ample; the clothing and bedding good and plentiful.

Only one case was treated in the infirmary; and the numbers treated and not excused labour were about four per diem.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Grinding corn and pumping water from the well to the main tank by the tread-wheel, and mat-making on heavy looms. 342 prisoners work at one time on the wheel, 3¼ hours actual work, ascent 1¼ miles.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Prisoners are allowed to participate in the profits of their labour to the extent of about five per cent., and the plan works satisfactorily.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

2,546 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by prisoners sentenced to hard labour for 14 days and under, and by prisoners under punishment for prison offences for periods not exceeding 14 days at one time.

On discharge from prison, 358 prisoners received assistance from a Prisoners' Aid Society.

Divine service is performed four times on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average one hour's secular instruction daily.

The surgeon attends every morning for about three hours, and again in the evening; he inspects every prisoner on admission, weekly, and on his discharge. He reports that the health of the prisoners has been extremely good, that no epidemic has prevailed; that the provisions are of good quality, and the dietary sufficient, but not more than sufficient; clothing and bedding also sufficient. There were 15 deaths from natural causes, one case of suicide, and one prisoner received a pardon on medical grounds; seven lunatics were removed, four to Colney Hatch, and three to Hanwell, only one showed decided symptoms of insanity when admitted.

Daily average number treated in the infirmary 8, and of prisoners treated in their cells and in the convalescent ward, all of whom were excused from hard labour, 90.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can, if they desire, be visited by their respective ministers. The Roman Catholic minister holds stated services.

The surgeon attends twice daily, and examines every prisoner upon admission, and inspects all prisoners every week. He states that the general state of health of the prisoners has been very good, that no epidemic has prevailed; that the provisions are good in quality and sufficient, but not more than sufficient in quantity; clothing and bedding sufficient. Three male prisoners, in a bad state of health on admission, died from natural causes, and three male prisoners committed suicide. Four lunatics were removed, viz., one male and one female prisoner to Colney Hatch Asylum, one female to Fisherton House Asylum, and one male to Camberwell House Asylum, all of whom had shown symptoms of insanity before admission.

Daily average number of prisoners treated in infirmary $\frac{137}{365}$; daily average number treated in their cells $9\frac{63}{365}$.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

The tread-wheel, tasked labour on heavy looms, mat shearing, and digging.

The tread-wheel has accommodation for 53 prisoners, employed thereon for 8½ hours daily; ascent 7,650 feet per man.

There are ample means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under efficient supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract. 178 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

On discharge from prison over 400 prisoners received assistance from the sheriff's fund, and many are doing well through the aid thus afforded.

Prisoners are allowed to participate in the profits of their labour to a certain extent, and in the opinion of the governor the system works well.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, one on Good Friday, and one on Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners, with an address on Wednesdays and Fridays always, frequently on other mornings a few words of exhortation. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions.

The male prisoners receive two hours secular instruction weekly in class, and have lessons to learn in cells. The females receive four hours instruction weekly in class, and have lessons to learn in cells.

The surgeon attends daily, and in urgent cases two or three times a day. He states that the general health of the prisoners has been good, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality, and the diet sufficient; clothing and bedding sufficient.

There were three deaths from natural causes. Three prisoners received pardon on medical grounds, and one lunatic, insane on admission, was removed to an asylum.

Average daily number treated in the infirmary 2·64; average daily number treated in cells and excused labour 2½; average daily number treated and not excused labour 15.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, one on Good Friday, and one on Christmas Day, with a sermon at each service. Prayers are read and an address given daily to the prisoners, except during the sessions, and when other unavoidable circumstances prevent it. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Every opportunity of giving instruction to uneducated prisoners is made use of, but it is impossible to give a correct average in a prison such as this, where prisoners are constantly coming and going.

The surgeon attends every day, and oftener when necessary; every prisoner is examined on admission, and the penal convicts twice afterwards, and every prisoner is seen every week; he states that the general condition of the prisoners as to health has been good, that the prison has not been visited by any epidemic; that the provisions have been of good quality and sufficient, but not more than sufficient, for maintaining the health and strength of the prisoners; and that the clothing and bedding have been sufficient. There has been one death from natural causes, one suicide, and six executions. The number of lunatics was seven, all insane on admission. The average daily number treated in the infirmary has been fractionally small. The only prisoners who do any labour are the penal convicts, and none have been exempt, except from some physical disability or temporary illness. The average daily number treated in their cells has been ten, without regard to hard labour.

HARD LABOUR.

Oakum-picking, washing, laundry, needlework, cleaning, lime-whiting, cooking, &c.

There are sufficient means of carrying out hard labour according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract. 1,204 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon. On discharge from prison 115 prisoners have been admitted into various institutions.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average one hour's secular instruction per diem.

The surgeon attends twice a day; he reports that the health of the prisoners generally has been good, that there has been no epidemic; provisions wholesome; clothing and bedding sufficient; but in severe weather it is necessary to add to both throughout the prison. During the year there were six deaths from natural causes, and one prisoner received a pardon on medical grounds. There were five cases of lunacy, one was remanded to Hanwell, and four to Colney Hatch; all unsatisfactory on admission.

The infirmary cases amounted to about one per cent., and those treated in their cells the same per-centage. Five per cent. of ordinary sick, including the most trifling ailments.

There is one service on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day, and prayers with a sermon every Wednesday by the chaplain. If prisoners not belonging to the Established Church wish to see their own ministers they can do so if they desire. The chaplain gives secular instruction to such prisoners as desire it, though doing so forms no part of his duty.

The surgeon attends nearly every day, and oftener if necessary; he states that the health of the prisoners generally has been satisfactory, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality, and the dietary sufficient; clothing and bedding also sufficient. There was one death from natural causes. Only one prisoner was treated in the infirmary. About 26 were treated in their cells for slight ailments, three of whom were excused from hard labour.

There has been no alteration in the duties of the chaplain, with the exception that he visits the prisoners employed at industrial labour in their cells, instead of having them brought to his room. The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their respective persuasions, if they request it.

Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average three hours secular instruction each week.

The surgeon attends daily, and sees all prisoners before they are classed. He states that the general condition of the prisoners is healthy. Small-pox broke out in the prison in January; it was brought into the prison by a man from Manchester, who was received on January 7th. The first symptoms appeared on the 18th, but the disease only showed its real character some days later. A second prisoner was seized with the disease on the 4th February, four more fell sick on the 7th, three more on the 8th, and three more on the 10th—making a total of 12. After this date no fresh cases occurred. Of these 12 cases, 5 were severe and 7 slight, and 2 deaths occurred, one a paralysed man, and the other a boy who had never been vaccinated. Every possible means of stopping the disease was employed—vaccination of every officer and prisoner; removal and isolation of those infected to a detached building; no visiting allowed; no fresh prisoners admitted, all fresh committals being sent to the city gaol. On April 3rd the surgeon considered all danger of infection had passed away, and prisoners were admitted as usual. Since this date no fresh case has occurred, and the state of health of the prisoners has been excellent. The surgeon also states that he believes the provisions to be of good quality, and that the dietary is sufficient and not in excess; and that the clothing and bedding are sufficient. One prisoner was executed, and two prisoners (both showing symptoms of insanity on admission) were removed to the County Lunatic Asylum.

During the year, 18 prisoners were treated in the infirmary, 36 in their cells and not excused labour, and 64 in their cells and excused labour.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Tread-wheel, cranks, and looms with heavy swingles. The wheel accommodates 28 prisoners, employed thereon in summer from 7 a.m. till 5 p.m., in winter from 9 a.m. till dusk, working 15 minutes and resting five minutes, taking 45 steps per minute (chapel and meals are included in above time). There are four cranks, used by prisoners who are certified by the surgeon as unfit for labour on the wheel, and by juveniles under 16 years. The machines are not weighted, and prisoners work and rest the same time as those on the wheel.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are constantly under supervision.

Provisions and all stores that can be contracted for are thus supplied.

Extra diet was not ordered for any one prisoner.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, and one on Good Friday and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average six hours secular instruction each week.

The surgeon attends daily, and examines the prisoners individually once a week; he states that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are good, the general dietary sufficient, and not more than sufficient. One death occurred from natural causes; and one lunatic, committed for trial for murder, insane on admission, was sent to Broadmoor on Secretary of State's warrant.

Seven prisoners were admitted during the year into the infirmary.

The average daily number treated in cells and excused about $\frac{1}{2}$; average daily number treated and not excused about 1.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day, and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average three hours secular instruction each week.

The surgeon attends daily, and as often as necessary; he states that the health of the prisoners has been good; that the prison has not been visited by any epidemic disease; that the general dietary is good and sufficient, bedding and clothing sufficient. Two cases of lunacy were admitted, both insane on admission, and were removed to the county lunatic asylum.

Average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary, $\frac{100}{388}$. Average daily number treated in their cells and excused labour, $3\frac{40}{88}$. Average daily number treated and not excused labour, $\frac{285}{88}$.

The chaplain performs one full service on Sundays; and prayers are daily read to the prisoners by him, or in his absence by the governor. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions.

There is no secular instruction given, but prisoners are supplied with spelling-books, copy-books, slates, and books for reading.

The surgeon attends twice a week, and as often as required. He states that the general health of the prisoners has been good; that there has been no epidemic; that the diet is sufficient, as also the clothing and bedding.

The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary, one; and on an average one prisoner was daily excused labour; he states also that the military prisoners complain of the "barley bread," and that an alteration to white bread is frequently necessary to be made. This prison is the only one in which such bread is used.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Tread-wheel and stone-breaking for males; washing mangling, and ironing, for females. The tread-wheel accommodates 24 prisoners, employed thereon six hours daily; ascent about 1½ miles. Stone-breaking is not tasked, but an officer is always present to enforce work.

There are sufficient means of carrying out hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract. 57 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon; and 29 prisoners received assistance on discharge from a Prisoners' Aid Society.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by prisoners for the first two months after conviction, with hard labour, unless otherwise ordered by the surgeon.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives secular instruction five days a week, for 3½ hours each day.

The surgeon attends daily, and oftener if required; he states that the general health of the prisoners has been fairly good, that there has been no epidemic, but that several prisoners suffered from a severe attack of diarrhoea during the summer; that the provisions are of good quality, sufficient, and not more than sufficient, for prisoners employed at hard labour, and for maintaining the health and strength of the prisoners; the clothing and bedding are sufficient. There was one death from natural causes, and four male prisoners received pardon on medical grounds.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

By tread-wheel, crank, and pumps, stone-breaking and rope-beating. The tread-wheel accommodates 33 prisoners, exclusive of reliefs, i.e., 1 in 4. Prisoners of the 1st class are employed thereon for eight hours daily, ascending 8,400 feet; those of the 2nd class for four hours, ascending 4,200 feet.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, 1st class; and the prisoners are constantly under supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract. 42 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by prisoners for the first three months after conviction, during the summer months, but not in winter.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; reads prayers daily to the prisoners, with three week day addresses; and holds a weekly bible class of six well conducted prisoners. Nonconformist ministers are allowed to visit the prisoners, on prisoners making a request to that effect. The Roman Catholic priest visits without such request. Each uneducated prisoner receives something under one hour secular instruction per week.

The surgeon attends daily, and examines all the prisoners on admission, and once a month in their cells; he states that the prisoners are healthy, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality, and the dietary sufficient, but not more than sufficient, for maintaining the health of prisoners. The clothing and bedding are sufficient. One death occurred from natural causes, and one prisoner received a pardon on medical grounds. There has been an occasional prisoner in the infirmary, also treated in cell and excused labour.

The average daily number treated and not excused from labour, six.

* The gruel for breakfast on Sunday in Class 4, and for breakfast and supper in Class 5, to contain 1 oz. of molasses.

Male prisoners at hard labour, at tread-wheel, crank, flax and rope-beating, and women employed in the laundry or other laborious occupation, to have the following additions and substitutions:—

In Class 2.—1 ounce extra of cheese on Sundays, and 1 pint of gruel for supper daily.

In Classes 2, 3, 4, and 5.—1 ounce extra of cheese on Sundays.

In lieu of the pudding on Mondays and Fridays.—3 ounces of beef in Class 3, 4 ounces in Class 4, and 4 ounces in Class 5 for men; and 2 ounces in Class 3, 3 ounces in Class 4, and 3 ounces in Class 5 for women.

The meat to be weighed after cooking, and served cold.

The meat liquor on Mondays and Fridays to form part of the soup on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

The soup to contain in each pint 2 ounces of split peas, instead of 1 ounce of barley.

The substitution of Australian for ordinary meat in the dietary is adopted.

Ingredients of soup.—In every pint: The meat and liquor from 6 ounces of the necks, legs, and shins of beef, weighed with the bone previous to cooking; 1 ounce of onions or leeks; 1 ounce of Scotch barley; 2 ounces of carrots, parsnips, turnips, or other cheap vegetable, with pepper and salt.

On Tuesdays and Saturdays the meat liquor of the previous day is to be added.

Ingredients of suet pudding.—1½ ounces of suet, 6½ ounces of flour, and about 8 ounces of water to make 1 pound.

Ingredients of Indian meal pudding.—To consist of ½ pint of skimmed milk to every 6 ounces of meal.

Ingredients of gruel.—To every pint, 2 ounces of coarse Scotch oatmeal, with salt.

Prisoners for examination before trial, misdemeanants of the first division, who do not maintain themselves, and destitute debtors, the diet of Class 3 without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one calendar month; that of Class 4 after the expiration of one month, and till the completion of the second calendar month; and that of Class 5 if the detention should exceed two calendar months.

Debtors or bankrupts committed by County Courts, or by any Court of Law for fraud, and deserters en route, the diet of Class 3.

Prisoners under punishment for prison offences under the provisions of the 42nd section of the Gaol Act, to have the diet of Class 1 for the first seven days; and after that to have 2 ounces extra of bread per diem.

Prisoners may be placed in a lower class of the dietary by order of a Visiting Justice, with the sanction of the medical officer.

Prisoners sentenced to hard labour for a term exceeding three months are placed on the third instead of the first class of diet immediately upon their entering the prison.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

The tread-wheel, crank pump, stone-breaking, flax beating, and flax breaking as supplementary labour.

The tread-wheel accommodates 36 prisoners. Prisoners of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd classes are employed thereon eight hours daily, ascending 10,080 feet, prisoners of the 4th class for six hours, ascending 7,560 feet, 5th class, four hours, ascending 5,040 feet, and 6th class, 2 hours, ascending 2,520 feet.

Stone-breaking is not tasked labour, but officers are always present to enforce work.

There are sufficient means of carrying out hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and the prisoners are under supervision.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

58 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by prisoners for the first two months after conviction, but during the winter months mattresses are supplied at the discretion of the surgeon.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, and one on Good Friday and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church can be visited by their own ministers.

Prisoners under short sentences do not receive any secular instruction, other prisoner receive about one and a quarter hours per week.

The surgeon attends almost daily; he reports that the health of the prisoners has been satisfactorily; that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are good in quality and the dietary sufficient, but not more than sufficient. Bedding and clothing also sufficient. There were four cases of lunacy; viz., three military prisoners, who became insane while undergoing their term of imprisonment, and were removed to Fisherton asylum; and one female prisoner, insane on admission, and also removed to Fisherton.

Average daily number of prisoners treated in infirmary $4\frac{80}{365}$. Average daily number treated in cells and excused labour, $2\frac{112}{365}$. Average daily number treated and not excused labour, $2\frac{67}{365}$.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are read to the prisoners four days in the week by him, on the other two days prayers selected by the chaplain are read to the prisoners by the governor. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average five hours secular instruction per week.

The surgeon attends daily when there are sick to be visited, and two or three times a week when there are no sick, and on all occasions when fresh prisoners are admitted; he states that there has been no epidemic disease; that the dietary is good and sufficient, as are the clothing and bedding. One lunatic, insane on admission, was removed to Dartmoor, since the termination of the year.

No case of sufficient severity has occurred during the year to necessitate confinement in the infirmary, and the number of prisoners excused labour was so small that he is unable to state an average.

Additions for Prisoners on Hard Labour.

Male prisoners at hard labour, and women employed in the laundry or other laborious occupation, to have the following additions and substitutions:—

In Class 2.—1 ounce extra of cheese on Sundays, and 1 pint of gruel for supper daily.

In Classes 2, 3, 4, and 5.—1 ounce extra of cheese on Sundays.

In lieu of the puddings on Mondays and Fridays.—3 ounces of beef in Class 3, 4 ounces in Class 4, and 4 ounces in Class 5 for men; and 2 ounces in Class 3, 3 ounces in Class 4, and 3 ounces in Class 5 for women.

The meat to be weighed after cooking, and served cold.

The meat liquor on Mondays and Fridays to form part of the soup on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

The soup to contain in each pint 2 ounces of split peas, instead of 1 ounce of barley.

Ingredients of Soup.—In every pint: The meat and liquor from 6 ounces of the necks, legs, and shins of beef, weighed with the bone previous to cooking; 1 ounce of onions or leeks; 1 ounce of Scotch barley; 2 ounces of carrots, parsnips, or other cheap vegetables, with pepper and salt.

On Tuesdays and Saturdays the meat liquor of the previous day is to be added.

Ingredients of Suet Pudding.—1½ ounces of suet, 6½ ounces of flour, and about 8 ounces of water to make 1 pound.

Ingredients of Indian meal Pudding.—To consist of half-a-pint of skimmed milk, to every 6 ounces of meal.

Ingredients of Gruel.—To every pint, 2 ounces of coarse Scotch oatmeal, with salt.

Prisoners sentenced by Court to solitary confinement, males and females, to be placed on the progressive scale of diet, in accordance with the duration of their sentences.

Prisoners for examination before trial, misdemeanants of the first division who do not maintain themselves, destitute debtors, and prisoners committed by the County Courts, the diet of Class 3, without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one calendar month; that of Class 4 after the expiration of one month, and till the completion of the second calendar month; and that of Class 5 if the detention should exceed two calendar months.

Debtors or bankrupts committed by any Court of Law for fraud, or for any serious legal offence, and deserters en route, the diet of Class 3.

Prisoners under punishment for prison offences, diet of Class 1 for the first seven days, and after that to have 2 ounces extra of bread per diem.

Whenever a prisoner thinks that his ration is short weight, he may ask the warder in charge of his party to weigh the same, and it shall be weighed in the presence of the prisoner, and the deficiency, if any, made good; and if a prisoner thinks he has any other just cause of complaint against his rations, he must prefer his complaint at the time he receives them, when his complaint will be inquired into by the chief warder, and settled if possible, or referred for the decision of the governor. No complaint as to rations can be received by the governor or submitted to the committee unless the above rules shall have been obeyed by the prisoner.

No prisoner will incur punishment by making any complaint, which he may think just, as to his treatment, unless it should be found that he made repeated false, frivolous, or vexatious complaints.

Whenever a prisoner is paraded before the committee, or a visiting justice, the governor desires to encourage him to make freely any complaint he may think he has as to his treatment in prison, and no prisoner would be punished for so doing, unless by order of the committee, or of the visiting justice, as above stated.

There are two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are read daily by the chaplain or his substitute, or on an emergency by the governor. Every facility is afforded to prisoners not belonging to the Established Church of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions. The schoolmaster, who is likewise employed in the general duties of the gaol, devotes an hour daily (Sunday excepted) to instructing male prisoners in the schoolroom.

The surgeon attends daily. He states that the general condition of the prisoners as to health has been good; that the prison has not been visited by any epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality, the general dietary sufficient, and not more than sufficient. There were three deaths from natural causes, and one suicide, and one prisoner received pardon on medical grounds. Three prisoners, insane on admission, were sent, two to Fisherton and one to Broadmoor.

Average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary 1½; average daily number receiving treatment in cells 12.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Crank labour, 12,000 revolutions in 6 hours daily, with a resistance of 11 lbs., weaving with heavy looms, sawing and cleaving wood, and ground digging when necessary.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are constantly under supervision.

Prisoners employed at industrial labour are allowed to participate in the profits of their labour to a certain extent. Re-convicted prisoners have a reduced scale and gratuity, and after a third conviction all gratuities cease. The governor reports favourably of this system, and considers it a great stimulus to industry in well-disposed prisoners.

Provisions are supplied by contract, stores partially so.

87 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon; and on discharge 402 prisoners received temporary or more substantial help.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by prisoners from one to four weeks according to their criminal antecedents.

A new work shed, in separate compartments, has been completed, in which will be carried on as much of the industrial labour as its size will permit.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions. The male adults receive on an average two and a half hours instruction each week, and the boys six hours in their respective classes; the females under instruction receive on an average two hours a week.

The surgeon attends at the prison daily, and oftener if necessary, and sees each prisoner once a week; he states that the general health of the prisoners has been good, but the military prisoners are usually much weakened by previous conviction before coming here. Provisions have been good in quality, and sufficient in quantity, but not more than sufficient to maintain the prisoners in health and strength; the clothing and bedding are sufficient.

There was one death from natural causes. Two male prisoners had portions of their sentences remitted on medical grounds. Four male (three soldiers) and one female lunatics were removed to the asylum; none were insane on committal.

The average daily number of cases really sick and treated in the infirmary were five; those excused labour temporarily or eased at the labour were about three per cent.; those not excused labour but attending the surgeon were about eight per cent. of the strength of the prison.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Tread-wheel, cranks, weaving, and grinding corn. The tread-wheel gives employment to 26 prisoners, 5 hours 15 minutes work, and 3 hours 30 minutes rest, ascent 10,395 feet; prisoners at the cranks perform 14,000 revolutions as the maximum, with a resistance of 10 lbs.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are at all times under supervision.

Provisions and stores are, as far as practicable, supplied by contract. 60 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by male prisoners for 14 nights after one conviction, and for one month after two or more convictions.

PUNISHMENTS FOR PRISON OFFENCES.

Dark cells, and stoppage of diet - - - 85

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and reads prayers daily to the prisoners. All prisoners have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their respective persuasions. The school-master attends at the prison for two and a half hours daily, from six till half-past eight, for the purpose of giving secular instruction; he devotes three evenings in each week to the uneducated, two to those who read and write imperfectly, and one to the rest.

The surgeon attends daily, and oftener if necessary; he states that the general health of the prisoners has been good, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are of good quality, but the dietary not being in some of the classes sufficient for maintaining the health of the prisoners, an increase has been proposed, and the subject is now under consideration of the authorities; clothing and bedding sufficient. One prisoner received a pardon on medical grounds; one prisoner, suspected of insanity on admission, respecting whose mental condition all doubts were removed in a few days, was sent to Hayward's Heath Asylum.

Average daily number in infirmary $1\frac{1}{3}$, average daily number treated in cells and excused labour $2\frac{3}{8}$; average daily number treated and not excused labour $3\frac{5}{8}$.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Pumping water by crank, and stone-breaking, half a ton per diem.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced, and generally speaking prisoners are at all times under supervision; but in consequence of the overcrowded state of the prison, it has been on some occasions necessary to place several prisoners in rooms to sleep, consequently they have not on such occasions been constantly under supervision.

Provisions and stores are, as far as possible, supplied by contract. 568 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon, and 203 prisoners received assistance from a Prisoners' Aid Society on being discharged.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by all prisoners sentenced to six weeks and under.

The B division in the basement is in progress of being converted into cells.

Two services are performed on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day; and prayers are read daily to the prisoners by the chaplain. Prisoners not belonging to the Established Church have the privilege of being visited by ministers of their several persuasions. Each uneducated prisoner receives on an average from three to seven hours secular instruction per week.

The surgeon attends twice daily; he reports that the general health of the prisoners has been good, that there has been no epidemic disease; that the diet is good in quality; clothing and bedding generally sufficient. In some cases it is necessary to increase the diet of those at hard labour. There were three deaths from natural causes; there were admitted four lunatics, two of the number had been inmates of an asylum, and the other two were insane on admission.

The average daily number of prisoners treated was 1.26 per cent., not quite one third of whom were excused labour.

HARD LABOUR, 1ST CLASS.

Crank labour, 10,000 revolutions per diem, with a resistance not exceeding seven pounds pressure; making heavy mats and matting.

There are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour, according to numbers sentenced; and prisoners are under supervision.

Prisoners whose labour is tasked receive a small amount in money for all work done over and above such task, and in the opinion of the governor the plan is a very satisfactory one.

Provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

137 prisoners were ordered extra diet by the surgeon; and on discharge, 142 prisoners received assistance from a Prisoners' Aid Society.

Plank bedsteads without mattresses are used by prisoners for one calendar month after conviction.

The chaplain performs two services on Sundays, and one on Good Friday and Christmas Day; and prayers are read daily to the prisoners by him or his substitute; the clause of the Act of 1865 referring to prisoners not of the Church of England is complied with. Secular instruction is given to prisoners, who attend school for three hours in each week.

The surgeon attends daily, and oftener if necessary, and sees every prisoner once a week. He states that the general health of the prisoners is satisfactory, that there has been no epidemic; that the provisions are good in quality, and the general dietary sufficient, and not more than sufficient, for maintaining the health and strength of the prisoners; clothing and bedding sufficient.

There were two deaths from natural causes. One prisoner received pardon on medical grounds; and seven prisoners, all insane on admission, were removed to an asylum.

Average daily number treated in infirmary $1\frac{188}{88}$. Daily average number treated in cells 7, not totally excused from labour.

FORTY-FIRST REPORT OF THE INSPECTORS OF PRISONS.

II.—NORTHERN DISTRICT.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE RICHARD A. CROSS, M.P.,
&c. &c. &c.,
Secretary of State for the Home Department.

SIR,

26th February 1877.

I HAVE the honour to submit my Annual Report for the past year on the Prisons of the Northern District, being a part of the Forty-first Report of the Inspectors of Prisons.

Consequent upon the uncertainty that has prevailed during the past year as to whether the County and Borough Prisons would be taken over by Government, very few additions or alterations have been made in the prison accommodation of the Northern District, either in England or Scotland.

The alterations and additions which have been so long in progress at the County Prison at Derby are at length completed, but the prison is still far from satisfactory; many of the cells are very small, and a considerable portion of the prison remains unaltered.

At Preston County Prison in Lancashire a new lodge is in course of erection.

The County Prison at Kendal, which was closed on the 10th of August 1875, for the purpose of being rebuilt, is still in course of reconstruction.

At Wakefield County Prison the hospital for male prisoners has been enlarged, and the fever hospital is in course of being enlarged.

The County Prison at Spilsby, in Lincolnshire, was closed on the 15th of April, and the prisoners were transferred to the Lindsey County Prison at Lincoln.

Increased accommodation for female prisoners is much required at the Borough Prison of Liverpool and the City Prison at Manchester.

At Lerwick, in Shetland, a new prison, containing accommodation for 5 male and 5 female prisoners, was opened on the 12th of December, and a new prison is in course of erection at Kirkwall, in Orkney.

The deficiency of accommodation for prisoners in the Counties of Lanark and Renfrew is most deplorable. At Glasgow Prison no less than 1,152 prisoners have been confined at the same time, the nominal accommodation being only 616 cells, several of which are used as store cells, &c., and a considerable number are quite unfit for the confinement of even one prisoner; at Hamilton Prison 62 prisoners have been confined in 29 small ill-ventilated cells; at Airdrie 88 prisoners have been confined in 42 cells, most of them small and indifferently ventilated; at Greenock Prison 114 prisoners have been confined in 60 cells, the ventilation of which is very indifferent; and at Pollockshaws Prison 13 prisoners have been confined in 4 cells.

No epidemic has occurred in any prison throughout the district, and the health of the prisoners has been generally good

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

T. FOLLIOTT POWELL,

Inspector of Prisons.

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried out by shot-drill, mat and matting making. It is stated that, except when the prison is overcrowded, there are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour in this class, and that as far as practicable prisoners when in association are under constant supervision.

108 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon. The provisions and stores are supplied by contract. Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction. There were 39 punishments by solitary or dark cells, and 1,091 by stoppage of diet, and one by whipping.

The chaplain states, "Two services are performed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday. Prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Secular instruction is given separately from one to two hours a week to uneducated prisoners."

The surgeon visits the prison daily. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epi-

Total ordinary expenditure of the prison, including salaries of all officers, &c., for the year ending 29th September 1876 - £7,853 19s. 2d.

Average annual total ordinary expenditure of the prison, including salaries of all officers, &c., for the preceding five years - £7,344 6s. 8d.

Average annual cost per prisoner, without allowing for earnings of labour, for the year ending 29th September 1876 - £19 7s. 10d.

Average annual net profit on each prisoner's labour - £7 12s. 2d.

Average annual cost per prisoner, after deducting the net profit on earnings - £11 15s. 8d.

Average weekly cost of food per prisoner - 1s. 9½d.

Well-conducted prisoners are allowed about one-third of the profits arising from work done in excess of their task, provided the sum so earned does not exceed 2l. In the opinion of the governor the plan works well.

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried out by stone breaking, cranks, weaving mats and matting, and bed-ticking, and making mats on a frame with a beater $5\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. weight.

At the cranks 14,400 revolutions is the required daily task, the resistance varying from 2 to 10 lbs., according to the strength of the prisoner.

At stone-breaking one ton is the daily task required.

It is stated that there are generally sufficient means of enforcing hard labour in this class, and that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision.

32 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are partly supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for 14 days after conviction.

There were 5 punishments by whipping, 3 by handcuffs, 488 by solitary confinement, and 1,065 by stoppage of diet.

A new lodge is being built to the prison.

The chaplain states, "Two services are performed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday. Prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Secular instruction is given from four to five hours a week to uneducated prisoners."

The surgeon visits the prison daily. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There were four deaths from natural causes, and two pardons on medical grounds. Three prisoners, insane on admission, were removed to the County Asylum. The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was between 2 and 3, in their cells and excused labour 2, and not excused labour 3."

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried out by oakum picking and by the tread-wheel, which accommodates 215. Prisoners in class A are employed on it seven hours, and in class B six hours daily, except on Wednesdays and Saturdays, when they are employed on it a shorter time. They are allowed periods of 5 minutes rest to 10 minutes labour, and the distance ascended is 1,320 feet per hour. It is stated that prisoners working in association are under constant supervision.

4 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are partly supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 2,069 punishments by solitary or dark cell, 40 by stoppage of diet, and 1 by whipping.

315 prisoners received assistance on discharge from the Liverpool Discharged Prisoners' Aid Society.

The chaplain states, "Two services are performed on Sundays and Good Friday, one only on Christmas Day. Prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Secular instruction is given to uneducated prisoners 25 minutes weekly."

The surgeon visits the prison daily. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There were nine deaths from natural causes, one caused by an accident which occurred before admission, three pardons on medical grounds, and four lunatic prisoners who were sent to the asylum.

The daily average number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was 19, and in their cells, some of whom were excused labour, 20.

A mark system has been introduced, whereby prisoners derive some profit from their labour. The plan works exceedingly well, in the Governor's opinion.

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried on by the tread-wheel, cranks, and weaving and mat-making with heavy looms. The tread-wheel accommodates 100,—50 resting, and 50 on the wheel. Prisoners are employed on it 9 hours daily, with 10 minutes rest to 10 minutes labour, the distance ascended being 9,861 feet.

At the cranks 14,400 revolutions for males, and 12,000 for females is the required daily task, the weight varying according to the strength of the prisoner.

It is stated that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision, except when the prison is overcrowded. 28 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 13 punishments by whipping, 276 by dark or solitary cells, and 2,078 by stoppage of diet.

A bakehouse has been erected in the prison, and additions are in progress to the Governor's house (stables and coach-house are being erected).

Several additions have been made to the staff.

Additions for Prisoners on Hard Labour.

Male prisoners at hard labour, and women employed in the laundry or other laborious occupation, to have the following additions and substitutions:—

In Class 2.—1 ounce extra of cheese on Sundays, and 1 pint of gruel for supper daily.

In Classes 2, 3, 4, and 5.—1 ounce extra of cheese on Sundays.

In lieu of the pudding on Mondays and Fridays.—3 ounces of beef in Class 3, 4 ounces in Class 4, and 4 ounces in Class 5 for men; and 2 ounces in Class 3, 3 ounces in Class 4, and 3 ounces in Class 5 for women. The meat to be weighed after cooking, and served cold.

The meat liquor on Mondays and Fridays to form part of the soup on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

The soup to contain in each pint 2 ounces of split peas instead of 1 ounce of barley.

Ingredients of Soup.

In every pint—

The meat and liquor from 6 ounces of the necks, legs, and shins of beef, weighed with the bone, previous to cooking.

1 ounce of onions or leeks.

1 ounce of Scotch barley.

2 ounces of carrots, parsnips, turnips, or other cheap vegetable, with pepper and salt.

On Tuesdays and Saturdays the meat liquor of the previous day is to be added.

Ingredients of Suet Pudding.

1½ ounces of suet.

6½ ounces of flour, and about 8 ounces of water, to make 1 lb

Ingredients of Indian-meal Pudding.

To consist of ¼ pint of skimmed milk to every 6 ounces of meal.

Ingredients of Gruel.

To every pint, 2 ounces of coarse Scotch oatmeal, with salt.

ADDITIONAL RULE. (In force.)

With the approval of the Secretary of State (dated 3rd August 1874), Australian meat may be used in lieu of freshly cooked meat, provided that one-sixth extra weight be added to each ration of Australian meat; that is to say, in lieu of 6 ounces of freshly cooked meat, 7 ounces of Australian meat be substituted.

Prisoners sentenced by Court to solitary confinement, males and females, to be placed on the progressive scale of diet in accordance with the duration of their sentences.

Prisoners for examination before trial, misdemeanants of the first division who do not maintain themselves, destitute debtors, and prisoners committed by the County Courts, the diet of Class 3 without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one calendar month; that of Class 4 after the expiration of one month, and till the completion of the second calendar month; and that of Class 5 if the detention should exceed two calendar months.

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried out by the tread-wheel, oakum beating, and heavy mat-making. The tread-wheel accommodates 34. Prisoners are employed on it 7½ hours daily, with 5 minutes rest to 15 minutes labour, the distance ascended being 9,000 feet. It is stated that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are not in use.

There were 30 punishments by solitary or dark cell, and 65 by stoppage of diet.

28 ordinary cells, 2 hospital cells, and 1 punishment cell, all now well constructed, have been obtained by the entire reconstruction of one of the old ill-constructed wings of this prison, the outer wall of the wing having been alone left unaltered.

The chaplain states, "Two services are performed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday. Prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Secular instruction is given 6 hours a week to uneducated prisoners.

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener if required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There were two deaths from natural causes. One prisoner, who became insane after admission, was removed to the Asylum. The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was $\frac{11}{885}$, in their cells and excused labour $\frac{27}{885}$, and not excused labour $\frac{111}{885}$."

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried out by hard-labour machines and pumping water. At the hard-labour machines 14,400 revolutions, with a resistance of from 3 to 6 lbs., is the required daily task. It is stated that there are not enough machines to enable hard labour of this class to be thoroughly enforced. Prisoners when in association are stated to be under constant supervision.

One prisoner received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are not supplied by contract.

Plank beds are not in use.

There was one punishment by dark cell.

The chaplain states, "One service only is performed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday. Prayers are read twice a week only by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Secular instruction is given six hours a week to uneducated prisoners.

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was $\frac{258}{365}$, in their cells and excused labour $\frac{67}{365}$, and not excused labour $\frac{160}{365}$."

Additions for Prisoners on Hard Labour.

Male prisoners at hard labour, and women employed in the laundry or other laborious occupation, to have the following additions and substitutions :—

In Class 2.—1 ounce extra of cheese on Sundays, and 1 pint of gruel for supper daily.

In Classes 2, 3, 4, and 5.—1 ounce extra of cheese on Sundays.

In lieu of the pudding on Mondays and Fridays,—3 ounces of beef in Class 3, 4 ounces in Class 4, and 4 ounces in Class 5, for men; and 2 ounces in Class 3, 3 ounces in Class 4, and 3 ounces in Class 5, for women.

The meat to be weighed after cooking, and served cold.

The meat liquor on Mondays and Fridays to form part of the soup on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

The soup to contain, in each pint, 2 ounces of split peas instead of 1 ounce of barley.

NOTE 1.—Where preserved meat is used, the following is to be the scale :— $3\frac{1}{2}$ ounces in Class 3, $4\frac{1}{2}$ ounces in Class 4, $4\frac{1}{2}$ ounces in Class 5, for men; and $2\frac{1}{2}$ ounces in Class 3, $3\frac{1}{2}$ ounces in Class 4, and $3\frac{1}{2}$ ounces in Class 5, for women.

Ingredients of Soup.

In every pint :—

The meat and liquor from 6 ounces of the heads, necks, legs, and shins of beef, weighed, with the bone, previous to cooking.

1 ounce of Scotch barley.

1 ounce of onions or leeks.

2 ounces of carrots, parsnips, turnips, or other cheap vegetable, with pepper and salt.

On Tuesdays and Saturdays the meat liquor of the previous day is to be added.

NOTE 2.—When preserved meat is used $4\frac{1}{2}$ ounces to be issued for each pint.

Ingredients of Suet Pudding.

$1\frac{1}{2}$ ounces of suet.

$6\frac{1}{2}$ ounces of flour, and about 8 ounces of water, to make 1 pound.

Ingredients of Indian-meal Pudding.

To consist of half a pint of skimmed milk to every 6 ounces of meal.

Ingredients of Gruel.

To every pint 2 ounces of coarse Scotch oatmeal, with salt.

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried out by the tread-wheel and cranks. The tread-wheel accommodates 10. Prisoners are employed on it 9½ hours, with five minutes rest to 25 minutes labour, the distance ascended being 15,000 feet. At the cranks 12,000 revolutions is the required daily task, the weight varying according to the strength of the prisoner. It is stated that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision, but that when in their cells the prison is so badly constructed that they can easily communicate with each other.

Four prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were two punishments by solitary cell, and four by stoppage of diet.

The chaplain states, "Two services are performed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday. Prayers are read daily by the governor, not by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. No regular secular instruction is given to uneducated prisoners."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no serious epidemic occurred. The dietary, clothing, and bedding are sufficient. The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was $\frac{2}{385}$."

It is stated that there are sufficient means of enforcing hard labour in this class, and that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision.

56 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are chiefly supplied by contract.

Plank beds are only used for punishment.

There were six punishments by whipping, 112 by solitary confinement, and 1,150 by stoppage of diet.

An additional assistant warder has been appointed.

The chaplain states, "Two services are performed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday. Prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Secular instruction is given four hours a week to uneducated prisoners."

The surgeon visits the prison every day. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There were four deaths. Two lunatic prisoners, insane on admission; one was removed to the workhouse, the other to Broadmoor. The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was $1\frac{66}{88}$, in their cells and excused labour $\frac{209}{388}$, and not excused labour 5.5."

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried out by the tread-wheel, weaving cocoa-matting by hand, stone-breaking, weaving mats by hand, making cocoa-yarn mats on a board or a frame with beater of 5½ lbs. weight. The tread-wheel accommodates 56. Prisoners are employed on it 6½ hours daily, with 10 minutes rest to 30 minutes labour, the distance ascended being 9,500 feet. It is stated that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision. 150 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract. Plank beds are not in use.

There were 582 punishments by bread and water in dark cells, and 1,588 by bread and water in light cells.

The men's hospital and the fever hospital have been enlarged.

The chaplain and surgeon resigned. Successors have been appointed. The office of assistant surgeon has been discontinued, the surgeon being now resident.

Industrial homes for male and female prisoners on their discharge are established in connection with the prison.

The chaplain states, "Two services are performed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday. Prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Secular instruction is given three hours a week to uneducated prisoners."

The surgeon visits the prison daily. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There were 15 deaths from natural causes, and 11 lunatic prisoners, 3 of whom were insane on admission. They

Hard labour of the 1st class is carried out by the tread-wheel, rope beating and chopping, matting and mat making in heavy looms. The tread-wheel accommodates 54. Prisoners are employed on it six hours daily, with 10 minutes rest to 20 minutes labour, the distance ascended being 1,680 feet per hour. It is stated that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision, except in the infirmary.

162 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores (except wheat) are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 402 punishments by dark cell, 204 by stoppage of diet, and one by whipping.

One prisoner made his escape, but was brought back a few days afterwards.

239 prisoners received assistance on discharge from the Hull Discharged Prisoners' Aid Society.

Two additional warders have been taken on during the contract for military prisoners.

The chaplain states, "Two services are performed on Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday. Prayers are read daily by the chaplain. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Very little secular instruction has been given during the past year, in consequence of the increased number in the prison and the want of a sufficient staff of officers.

212 Report on Prisons in the Northern District.

The surgeon visits the prison daily. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions, clothing, and bedding are sufficient. There were 4 deaths, and 3 pardons on medical grounds, and one lunatic prisoner.

The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was $1\frac{1}{8}$, and in their cells and excused labour $2\frac{1}{8}$."

Hard labour is carried out by crank machine and picking dry rope. At dry rope picking from 2½ to 4 lbs. is the required daily task. At the cranks the number of revolutions required is as fixed by rule 93. The daily task for hemp picking at ordinary labour is from 10 lbs. to 14 lbs. It is stated that prisoners when in association are not under constant supervision.

One prisoner received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Provisions and coals are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 93 punishments by reduction of diet, and four by refractory cell.

23 prisoners received assistance on discharge from the Aberdeen Discharged Prisoners' Aid Society.

The surgeon resigned, and a successor was appointed.

Secular instruction is given about three hours a week to uneducated prisoners by the chaplain and matron.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874 are duly carried out, except Nos. 3, 8, 38, 15, 21, 88, and 116.

The chaplain states no alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Service is performed on Sundays.

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. The average daily number of prisoners treated in their cells and excused labour was $\frac{37}{365}$, and not excused labour $\frac{33}{365}$."

This is a rambling, ill-constructed prison, most of the cells being small and very indifferently ventilated.

Hard labour is carried out by cranks and teasing oakum. At the cranks 14,400 revolutions is the required daily task, the resistance varying according to the strength of the prisoners. At oakum picking from 3 to 4 lbs. is the required daily task.

It is stated that prisoners are not associated.

Two prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are not supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

No punishments.

Secular instruction is given six hours a week by the warder and chaplain.

It is stated that the whole of the rules issued in 1874 are carried out as far as practicable. But in order to comply with them in their integrity, all the alterations and additions named in my last report are still requisite.

The chaplain states that no alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays, and all prisoners attend.

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. The average daily number of prisoners treated in their cells but not excused labour was $\frac{5}{365}$ "

Hard labour is carried out by oakum picking, at which from 1 lb. to 5 lbs. is the required daily task.

It is stated that prisoners when in association are not under constant supervision.

Male prisoners sentenced to penal servitude receive No. 7 diet.

34 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions only are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 63 punishments by change of diet, dark cell, and guard bed.

As female convicts are no longer detained here the services of three female warders have been dispensed with.

Three additional male warders have been appointed in consequence of male prisoners from Glasgow being now sent here.

Secular instruction is given about two hours a week to uneducated prisoners by the chaplain and female teacher.

It is stated that a considerable number of the rules are not yet carried out, though weekly bathing has been introduced; the ventilation of the cells, which is very indifferent, remains unaltered.

The chaplain states: "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays, and all prisoners attend."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient." There was one lunatic prisoner, who was discharged into the custody of his father. The average daily number of prisoners treated in their cells and excused labour was 1, but not excused labour was $\frac{90}{365}$.

Hard labour is carried out by cranks and picking oakum. At the cranks 14,000 revolutions for males and 10,000 for females and juveniles is the required daily task, with a resistance of 11 lbs. At oakum picking from 4 to 5 lbs. is the required daily task.

It is stated that prisoners when in association are not constantly under supervision.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 12 punishments by stoppage of diet, and one by separation.

The heating and ventilating apparatus in the prison has been improved, and some alterations made.

A warder has been appointed.

Secular instruction is given about half an hour weekly to uneducated prisoners by the teacher.

The rules issued in 1874 are stated to be carried out as far as the very defective construction of this prison will permit, and no second male officer appointed.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays, and all prisoners attend."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. One prisoner was treated in his own cell and excused labour."

Hard labour is carried out by oakum picking or stone-breaking. At oakum picking from 1½d. to 5 lbs. is the required daily task, and at stone-breaking from 8 to 15 cwts.

It is stated that prisoners when in association are not under constant supervision.

Two prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon. The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 51 punishments by change of diet and four by dark cell.

The governor, matron, and warder resigned, and successors have been appointed.

Secular instruction is given four hours a week by the governor and matron.

It is stated that the whole of the rules issued in 1874 are strictly carried out, except that as to a Sunday service, there being no chapel, and the prison having been greatly overcrowded.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. No service is performed on Sundays."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. Three lunatic prisoners, all insane on admission, were removed to an asylum. The average daily number of prisoners treated in their cells and excused labour was $\frac{74}{868}$."

It is stated that, as far as practicable, prisoners when in association are under constant supervision.

282 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 2,296 punishments, by reduction of diet, handcuffs, and dark cells.

312 prisoners received assistance on discharge from the Edinburgh Discharged Prisoners Aid Society.

The old treadmill buildings have been converted into a workshop, and partitions erected in the wash-house.

A steward has been appointed. Two warders were dismissed for bad conduct.

Secular instruction is given $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours a week to uneducated prisoners by teachers.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874 are duly carried out, except those suspended by the Prison Board.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sunday."

The surgeon visits the prison daily. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There were two pardons on medical grounds, and 10 cases of insanity, of whom 9 were insane on admission. The average daily number of prisoners treated in the infirmary was $\frac{350}{88}$, in their cells and excused labour 3, and not excused labour $3\frac{15}{88}$."

The part of the prison appropriated to female prisoners still remains in the same unsatisfactory state as named in my six previous reports.

Hard labour is carried out by cranks and picking oakum. At the cranks 14,400 revolutions for males and 12,000 for females, the resistance varying according to the strength of the prisoner, is the required daily task, and at oakum picking from 2½ to 5 lbs. for males, and 1½ to 3lbs. for females. It is stated that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision.

Eleven prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are partly supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 13 punishments by reduction of diet, and two by dark cell.

Secular instruction is given one hour a week to uneducated prisoners by the chaplain.

The whole of the rules issued in 1874 continue to be duly carried out.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient."

Prisoners participate in the profits of their labour, according to the number of marks earned by them. In the opinion of the governor the plan works very well.

Hard labour is carried out by oakum-picking, at which from 2½ to 5 lbs. for males, and from 1½ to 3 lbs. for females is the required daily task.

It is stated that prisoners when employed in association are under constant supervision.

123 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 123 punishments by a reduction of diet and dark cell, and 8 by handcuffs.

34 prisoners received assistance on discharge from the Dundee Prisoners' Aid Society.

Secular instruction is given four hours a week to uneducated prisoners by the chaplain.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874 are duly carried out, except Nos. 1, 21, 29, 68, 81, 88, and 116, but a new well-constructed prison is urgently required.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays."

The surgeon visits the prison daily. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There was one death. There were three lunatic prisoners, one of whom was removed to the General Prison at Perth, and the other two to Dundee Asylum.

Total ordinary expenditure of the prison, including salaries of all officers, &c., for the year ending 31st December 1876 - £758 10s. 11d.

Average annual total ordinary expenditure of the prison, including salaries of all officers, &c., for the preceding five years - £676 7s. 7d.

Average annual cost per prisoner, without allowing for earnings of labour, for the year ending 31st December 1876 - £25 5s. 10d.

Average annual net profit on each prisoner's labour - £2 18s. 11d.

Average annual cost per prisoner, after deducting the net profit on earnings - £22 6s. 11d.

Average weekly cost of food per prisoner - 2s. 4d.

Hard labour is carried out by cranks and picking oakum. At the cranks 14,000 revolutions for males, and 12,000 for juveniles, the weight varying from 5 to 8 lbs., is the required daily task, and at oakum picking from 2½ to 5 lbs. for males, and from 1½ to 3 lbs. for females and juveniles. It is stated that prisoners are only associated when the prison is overcrowded.

11 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Provisions and coals only are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 51 punishments by reduction of diet, 8 by irons, and 5 by guard bed.

Secular instruction is given four hours a week to uneducated prisoners by the governor and matron.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874 are duly carried out, except those suspended by the Prison Board, but if this prison is retained, considerable additions and alterations are required, and the ventilation of the existing cells requires to be improved.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. One prisoner, insane on admission, was removed to Perth General Prison. The average daily number of prisoners treated in their cells and excused labour was $\frac{10}{385}$, and not excused labour $\frac{36}{385}$."

Hard labour is carried out by picking oakum, at which from 2½ to 5 lbs. is the required daily task.

It is stated that prisoners when in association are not under constant supervision.

One prisoner received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are not supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

No punishments.

No secular instruction is given.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874 are carried out, except Nos. 1, 4, 20, 21, 24, 28, and 67. The prison is damp, and inefficiently warmed and ventilated; and if retained, a second male officer and very considerable additions and alterations are required to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the rules.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. No Divine service is performed on Sundays unless there are more than five prisoners, which rarely happens."

The surgeon visits the prison once a month, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary sufficient."

The average daily number of prisoners sick and excused from labour was $\frac{72}{365}$.

Total ordinary expenditure of the prison, including salaries of all officers, &c., for the year ending 31st December 1876	- - -	£14,969 12s. 11d.
Average annual total ordinary expenditure of the prison, including salaries of all officers, &c., for the preceding five years	- - -	£12,359 3s. 3d.
Average annual cost per prisoner, without allowing for earnings of labour, for the year ending 31st December 1876	- - -	£18 6s. 5¼d.
Average annual net profit on each prisoner's labour	- - -	£1 0s. 1½d.
Average annual cost per prisoner, after deducting the net profit on earnings	- - -	£17 6s. 3¾d.
Average weekly cost of food per prisoner	- - -	2s. 0d.

Hard labour is carried out by picking oakum, at which from 2½ to 5 lbs. for males, and from 1½ to 3 lbs. for females, is the required daily task.

It is stated that, as far as practicable, prisoners when in association are under supervision:

The provisions and stores are principally supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 379 punishments by change of diet, dark cell, irons, and deprivation of exercise.

128 prisoners received assistance on discharge from the Glasgow Prisoners' Aid Society.

Secular instruction is given 18 hours a week to uneducated prisoners, by two male and two female teachers, assisted by the chaplain.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874 are carried out, as far as the construction and accommodation of the prison admits, except those suspended by the County Prison Board.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays."

The surgeon visits the prison daily. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There were 12 deaths from natural causes, 1 execution, and 1 pardon on medical grounds. The daily average number of prisoners treated during the year was 12."

This prison continues to be most fearfully overcrowded, there being only nominal accommodation for 616 prisoners, most of which is of a very indifferent character, many of the cells being quite unfit for the confinement of even one prisoner, yet there have been as many as 1,152 prisoners confined in these cells at the same time.

A new prison is most urgently required.

Hard labour is carried out by picking oakum, at which from 3 lbs. to 5 lbs. is the required daily task. It is stated that prisoners when in association are not under constant supervision, owing to want of accommodation.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 38 punishments by change of diet and dark cell.

Three rooms for warders, washing house, laundry, and stores have been added to the prison.

Secular instruction is given two hours a week to uneducated prisoners by the chaplain.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874 are carried out, except Nos. 3, 8, 21, 28, 29, 59, 88, and 116 by order of the County Prison Board.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. There was one lunatic prisoner, who was removed to an asylum. The average daily number of prisoners treated in their cells and excused labour was $\frac{4}{366}$, and not excused labour $\frac{51}{366}$."

As many as 88 prisoners have been confined in the course of the past year in the 42 small ill-ventilated cells of this prison; and if it should be retained, very considerable additions and alterations are required to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the rules.

Hard labour is carried out by picking oakum and pumping water.

At picking oakum from 3½ to 5 lbs. is the required daily task. It is stated that prisoners are only associated when the prison is overcrowded.

Sixteen prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

Bread only is supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 18 punishments by reduction of diet.

Secular instruction is given to uneducated prisoners by the chaplain.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874, except Nos. 21, 29, and 42, are duly carried out; but if the prison is retained, very considerable additions and alterations will be requisite to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the rules.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays for the male prisoners, and occasionally on a week day for the female prisoners."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. Two lunatics, both insane on admission, were removed to a lunatic asylum. The average daily number of prisoners treated in their cells and excused labour was $\frac{114}{88}$, and not excused labour $\frac{122}{88}$."

Six prisoners received assistance on discharge from the Dundee Prison Aid Society.

Secular instruction is given about one hour a week to each uneducated prisoner by the chaplain.

It is stated that the whole of the rules are duly carried out, as far as the buildings admit.

The chaplain states there have been no alterations in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays.

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. Four prisoners, all insane on admission, were removed to asylums. The average daily number of prisoners treated in their cells and excused labour was $\frac{51}{388}$, and not excused labour $3\frac{70}{388}$."

Prisoners to a certain extent participate in the profits of their labour, in accordance with rule 98; it is stated that the plan works well.

Hard labour is carried out by crank machines and picking oakum. At the cranks 14,400 for males and 12,400 for females is the required daily task, and at oakum-picking from 2½ to 5 lbs. It is stated that prisoners are not associated.

Bread only is supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were two punishments by solitary cell.

It is stated that the whole of the rules issued in 1874 are carried out, as far as the construction of the building admits, and no service performed on Sundays; the prison is also very imperfectly warmed.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. No divine service is performed on Sundays.

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. Hard labour is carried out by picking oakum and cranks. At the cranks 14,400 revolutions for males and 12,000 for females and juveniles is the required daily task, and at oakum picking from 2 to 4 lbs. It is stated that prisoners when in association are not under constant supervision.

13 prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 8 punishments by change of diet, 10 by dark cell, 2 by irons, 13 by guard bed, 2 by forfeit of gratuities, and 3 by deprivation of exercise.

The staff of the prison was reduced when the convicts were removed.

Secular instruction is given to uneducated prisoners by the chaplain; the average number of hours per week not known.

The rules are stated to be carried out, except portions of Nos. 8, 9, 101, and 116; but the ventilation of many of the cells is very defective, and all of them require to be provided with the means of communicating with an officer.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays.

Hard labour is carried out by teasing oakum, at which from 1½ to 5 lbs. is the required daily task. It is stated that, as far as practicable, prisoners when in association are under supervision.

Eight prisoners received extra diet by order of the surgeon.

The provisions and stores are supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 36 punishments, chiefly by reduction of diet.

Six prisoners received assistance on discharge from the local Prisoners' Aid Society.

No secular instruction is given.

It is stated that the rules issued in 1874 are duly carried out, with the exception of those suspended by the Prison Board.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week, and oftener when required. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient. Two lunatic prisoners, insane on admission, were removed to an asylum. The daily average number of sick prisoners was $\frac{227}{368}$."

This prison continues to be as greatly overcrowded as during preceding years, as many as 67 male prisoners having been located at the same time in the 30 cells appropriated to them; the ventilation of the cells is very indifferent, and they are not yet provided with the means of communicating with an officer.

Hard labour is carried out by cranks and picking oakum. At the cranks 14,000 revolutions is the required daily task, with a resistance of from 6 to 8 lbs. At oakum picking from 2 to 3½ lbs. is the required daily task. It is stated that prisoners are never in association, except from want of cell accommodation.

The provisions and stores are not supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There were 20 punishments by reduction of diet.

No secular instruction is given.

It is stated that all the rules are duly carried out, except when there is insufficient accommodation for the prisoners.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good and no epidemic occurred."

This is a rambling, unsatisfactory prison, and the ventilation in some of the cells defective.

It is stated that prisoners when in association are under constant supervision.

The provisions and stores are not supplied by contract.

Plank beds are in use for one month after conviction.

There was one punishment by deprivation of a meal.

Secular instruction is given two hours a week to uneducated prisoners by the governor.

It is stated that, so far as practicable, the rules issued in 1874 are carried out, but there is no second male officer and several additions are required to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the rules.

The chaplain states, "No alterations have been made in his duties. Prisoners not of the Established Church are allowed to see their own ministers. Divine service is performed on Sundays when the statutory number of prisoners are present."

The surgeon visits the prison twice a week. He states, "The general health of the prisoners has been good, and no epidemic occurred. The provisions are of good quality, and the dietary, clothing, and bedding sufficient."

RULES for PRISONS under the Administration of County Boards in SCOTLAND, certified by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in terms of "The Prisons (Scotland) Administration Act, 1860," 23 & 24 Vict. cap. 105. sects. 6-9.

EXPLANATION OF TERMS.

The words "Secretary of State" shall mean the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for the time being. The word "Board" shall mean the Prison Board of the county. The word "Prison," when used without any qualifying term, shall mean every Prison under the administration of the Board, in terms of "The Prisons (Scotland) Administration Act, 1860." The word "juvenile," when not restricted, shall apply to male prisoners not above eighteen, and to female prisoners not above sixteen years old. The words "stated average number of Prisoners" shall mean the average daily number of Prisoners for the year, as set forth in the Reports on "The Judicial Statistics of Scotland," and shall always be held as the number during that year to which such Report latest presented to Parliament applies.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION.

Giving effect to Prevention of Crimes Act. 34 & 35 Vict. c. 112.

Clothing, &c. of untried prisoners.

Arrangements for defence. 36 & 37 Vict. c. 63

I. The Board shall give such directions or instructions as may seem necessary for the following purposes, viz. :—

1. The photographing of prisoners, and the other duties incumbent on prison officers under "The Prevention of Crimes Act, 1871," or any Act altering or amending it.

2. In the case of untried prisoners, adjusting the clothing, shaving, or other matters affecting personal appearance, so as to assist the public prosecutor in any desire he may express that the prisoner shall appear at the bar as near as may be in the condition he was in at the time of the offence charged against him.

3. Permitting untried prisoners to see and correspond with any "enrolled law-agent," under the Act of 1873, or member of the Faculty of Advocates.

4. Arranging for intimation to the agent for the poor of the case of any prisoner who has been served with an indictment or other notice of trial, and is believed to be unable to defray the cost of his defence.

Intimation to agent for the poor.

5. Giving effect to the provisions of "The Capital Punishment Amendment Act (1868)," and any special rules or regulations issued by the Secretary of State under section six of that Act.

Execution of sentences of death.
31 & 32 Vict. c. 24.

6. Giving effect to the provisions for inspection and inquiry conferred on Her Majesty's Inspector, or on any person specially authorised by the Secretary of State, in terms of the Act of 1835. As also to the provisions for inspection and inquiry in the Prisons Administration Act, 1860.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 38. ss. 7, 8, 9, and 10.
23 & 24 Vict. c. 105. ss. 58 and 71.

7. Giving effect to the provisions for inspection and inquiry conferred on Her Majesty's Commissioners in Lunacy in "any prison in which there shall be or be alleged or supposed to be any lunatic."

20 & 21 Vict. c. 71. s. 18.

8. Supplying any report, return, or other document required by the Secretary of State from any officer, without charge in the shape of fee or otherwise.

Reports to Secretary of State.

II. The Board is responsible that arrangements shall be taken for prompt action, through their clerk or otherwise, in the case of emergencies, and especially in reference to the following duties:—

1. An application to the Sheriff, under sect. 72 of the Prisons Administration Act, for the disposal of a prisoner attacked by disease of the nature described in the Act.

Application to sheriff in case of disease.
23 & 24 Vict. c. 105. s. 72.

2. An application to the Sheriff, under sect. 6 of the Criminal and Dangerous Lunatics Amendment Act, for the disposal of any prisoner certified as being insane.

34 & 35 Vict. c. 55. s. 6.

3. Communicating with the managers of the General Prison as to any lunatic prisoner at Her Majesty's disposal or under sentence, when the case appears to be of the kind appropriate for treatment in the lunatic department of that prison. Before opening such communication it must be kept in view that the department is maintained at the national expense, for the reception and detention under Government supervision of criminal lunatics, who, from the dangerous character of their lunacy or other conditions, cannot be appropriately treated in an ordinary asylum consistently with the public safety or the proper treatment of other classes of lunatic patients.

Lunatics at Her Majesty's disposal.
25 & 26 Vict. c. 54. s. 20.
Lunatics under sentence.
25 & 26 Vict. c. 54. s. 22.
Class of criminal lunatics receivable into general prison.

4. Immediate information being sent to the Crown Agent in case of the escape of a prisoner, or of the Notice to crown agent

of certain occurrences. 23 & 24 Vict. c. 105. s. 7.	sudden death of a prisoner, or of any unusual and important occurrence; and inquiry so soon as practicable after any such escape or death, so as to be prepared to report to the Secretary of State the circumstances under which the same took place.
Clothing of discharged military prisoners.	5. Giving effect to the Secretary of State's instruction as to the clothing of military prisoners discharged from the army, as communicated in Circular dated 5th July 1872.
Appointment and responsibility of officers.	III. The Board is responsible for the appointment of a sufficient staff of officers to each prison. Every officer who accepts of an appointment in writing under the hand of the Clerk of the Board becomes bound by the terms of these Rules, and of any further conditions that may be set forth in such writing.
Sufficiency of staff.	IV. To every prison there shall be a keeper or governor, one male warder at least to assist the governor, a matron, and a surgeon registered under "the Medical Act" of 1858. To every prison where convicted prisoners may be confined for more than one month there shall be a chaplain. In every prison where convicted prisoners may be confined for periods of three months and upwards, provision shall be made for giving instruction in reading and writing.
Exclusive services.	V. No person shall hold the office of governor or other discipline officer in a prison who holds any other office, the duties of which might withdraw him from the prison or otherwise interfere with the proper discharge of his duty as a prison officer.
Qualification of discipline officers.	VI. No person shall be appointed as a discipline officer in a prison who is above forty years of age, unless before completing his fortieth year he had been on prison duty elsewhere, or had served in any other capacity likely to qualify him for the duties of a prison officer, such as that of a serjeant in the army or an attendant in an hospital.
Appointments to be reported to Secretary of State.	VII. Every appointment to an office in a prison shall be reported to the Secretary of State, with the age; the reason for the selection, if the appointment be of a discipline officer, and the age exceed forty; the salary and allowances; and any other particulars that may be desired by the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State express his disapproval of the amount of salary or any other particular of the arrangement, the appointment shall not be considered as duly completed until such defect shall be remedied.
Suspensions.	VIII. The Board may suspend an officer during the dependence of the question whether or not he is to be dismissed, and the governor may, on emergency, suspend an officer under his order, sending immediate notice of his

having done so to the clerk of the Board. No suspended officer shall continue to possess a key, or have access to any part of the building in which there are prisoners.

IX. Every dismissed or suspended officer must, when required, vacate any premises occupied by him within the bounds of the prison, and restore any uniform or other effects in his possession belonging to the establishment.

Officer dismissed or suspended to vacate premises, &c.

X. No officer shall have any pecuniary dealings with prisoners, or receive any money from prisoners or their friends. No officer shall have any interest in the supply of the food or any other article to the prison, or have perquisites of any kind, or receive fees or gratuities from persons visiting the prison or from any other quarter.

No presents, perquisites, fees, or gratuities allowed.

XI. No officer shall employ any prisoner in making clothes for him, or in his private service in any way, even though he be willing to pay the full value of the work.

Officer not to take the services of prisoners.

XII. The Board shall provide for the inspection of each prison (including an examination of every prisoner, and of every cell and room), by at least one of their own number, not less frequently than once in each month; and the date of the inspection, together with the names of the visitors, shall be recorded in the inspection book. The result shall either be entered in the book by the inspecting members, so as to be transcribed into the governor's quarterly report, as per Rule LII. sect. 10, or in a special report made by them to the Board. In either case the reports shall be transcribed in the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

Inspection of prison by members of Board.

XIII. The only persons who, as a general rule, are to be admitted to visit the Prisons are: 1st, Those who are authorized by statute to visit; 2d, Clergymen under Rules CIX. and CXI.; 3d, Visitors authorized under Rules XVI. and LXXIV.; and 4th, Persons presenting an order from the Board, or accompanied by a member of the Board. If any person should desire to visit the prison who cannot conveniently wait until communication is had with the Board, the governor has a discretionary power to admit him for a special cause; as, for instance, that he is a person connected with the administration of prison discipline, and desires to have the benefit of observing the arrangements of the prison. Every such admission, with the special cause, shall be entered in the governor's journal, and reported to the Board. This rule does not apply to the visits which prisoners may receive from relations or friends, as per Rules CVII. and CVIII. The name of every visitor, whether to see the prison or any particular prisoner, must be entered in the register of visits.

Admission of visitors to the prison.

Communications from Her Majesty's Inspector.

XIV. Her Majesty's Inspector, after inspecting a prison, may, by letter addressed to the Board through their clerk, call the attention of the Board to any irregularity he may have observed in such prison, or any complaint he may have to make concerning the buildings, the officers, or the discipline of the prison; and it shall be the duty of the clerk to read such letter to the Board at their earliest meeting after the reception of the same, and to cause the letter to be copied into the Board's minute book.

Conditions of Exchequer
allowance for maintenance.

XV. On and after the 1st day of July 1875 the Exchequer allowance for maintenance of prisoners shall only be paid for prisoners detained in such prisons as shall be certified for the purpose to the Lords of the Treasury by the Secretary of State, on a report by Her Majesty's Inspector that the rules are duly enforced in such prison, and that the prison is kept in a satisfactory manner; and if the Secretary of State intimates to the Lords of the Treasury that he withdraws such certificate, the allowance shall not be made for any period subsequent to such withdrawal.

Inspection of books, &c. by officer of Department of
Prisons and Statistics.

XVI. For the purpose of furthering accuracy and uniformity in the collection of the statistics of prisons, any officer in the United Department of Prisons and Statistics, having written instructions to that effect by the chief stipendiary officer of the department, shall, on visiting a prison, have an opportunity of inspecting the books and documents kept in the prison.

Power of sus-
and of making
rules.

XVII. The Board shall have power to suspend the operation of any rule in whole or in part, provided they immediately report the same to the Secretary of State, whose instructions they shall follow in the matter. They may make additional rules, provided such additional rules be not inconsistent with the rules sanctioned by the Secretary of State, and be immediately reported to him for his approval.

Reference of difficulties to
Secretary of State.

XVIII. In all questions of difficulty, with which they feel uncertain that they have power to deal, or on which they think it undesirable, owing to peculiar circumstances, that they should take the responsibility of dealing, it shall be the duty of the Board to refer the matter directly to the Secretary of State.

BUILDINGS.

Special purposes specified
to be observed.

XIX. When by the Secretary of State's order, or the other authority by which the building is made a legal prison, certain cells have been set apart for male and for female prisoners respectively, and a certain portion of the prison has been appointed for the detention of civil prisoners, the special purposes so assigned for each department of the building must be strictly observed. Provided that, where in the case of any emergency it is found necessary for the public safety, or to secure the due administration of justice, that prisoners are placed in parts of the prison not assigned to the class to whom such prisoners belong, an immediate intimation thereof shall be sent to the Crown Agent.

Provision for emergencies. |

XX. In a prison where there are both male and female prisoners, the structure and arrangements must be such that no prisoner of the one sex can see or hold communication with a prisoner of the other. It must also be as far as practicable so arranged that no male officer of a prison shall have access to any cell in the female department, or to any place where female prisoners are at exercise, unless he is attended by the matron or a female officer acting for the matron. In prisons where the stated average number of prisoners exceed twenty, this will be accomplished by assigning a separate building or department to the female prisoners, with a separate entrance, and a lock different from the other locks, to which no male officer shall be permitted to have a key. When the structure of the prison does not admit of this, the object must be accomplished, as far as practicable, by a separate form of locks for the cells occupied by females, or in some other efficient shape.

Provision for separation of the sexes.

XXI. The structure of the prison must be such as to enable the rules for the separate system of discipline of prisoners to be effectually carried out. They shall be such that for each prisoner there shall at all times be not less than 800 cubic feet of available space.

Provision for separate discipline.

XXII. The cubic contents of each cell or room in which a prisoner may lawfully be detained shall be ascertained and recorded. Either a note of the cubic contents shall, in each instance, be placed over the door, or the whole cubic contents of the several parts shall be exhibited in some accessible place, in such manner that any one inspecting the prison shall be able, without difficulty, to note the contents of every cell or room.

Note of cubic contents of cells, &c.

XXIII. If the accommodation of the prison consists of more than twenty rooms or cells, the Board shall cause a plan, 1st, of the drains, 2d, of the water-supply pipes, and 3d, of the method of ventilation, to be made, and to be preserved for reference in the governor's office.

Plan of drains, pipes, and ventilation.

XXIV. The keys and locks shall be so adjusted that the following three classes of locks can severally only be opened by a key that will not open any of the others, viz., 1. The lock of the outer gate; 2. The lock of the entrance door to Separate keys, for different parts.

Communications from Her Majesty's Inspector.

XIV. Her Majesty's Inspector, after inspecting a prison, may, by letter addressed to the Board through their clerk, call the attention of the Board to any irregularity he may have observed in such prison, or any complaint he may have to make concerning the buildings, the officers, or the discipline of the prison; and it shall be the duty of the clerk to read such letter to the Board at their earliest meeting after the reception of the same, and to cause the letter to be copied into the Board's minute book.

Conditions of Exchequer
allowance for maintenance.

XV. On and after the 1st day of July 1875 the Exchequer allowance for maintenance of prisoners shall only be paid for prisoners detained in such prisons as shall be certified for the purpose to the Lords of the Treasury by the Secretary of State, on a report by Her Majesty's Inspector that the rules are duly enforced in such prison, and that the prison is kept in a satisfactory manner; and if the Secretary of State intimates to the Lords of the Treasury that he withdraws such certificate, the allowance shall not be made for any period subsequent to such withdrawal.

Inspection of books, &c. by officer of Department of
Prisons and Statistics.

XVI. For the purpose of furthering accuracy and uniformity in the collection of the statistics of prisons, any officer in the United Department of Prisons and Statistics, having written instructions to that effect by the chief stipendiary officer of the department, shall, on visiting a prison, have an opportunity of inspecting the books and documents kept in the prison.

Power of sus-
pending rules
and of making
rules.

XVII. The Board shall have power to suspend the operation of any rule in whole or in part, provided they immediately report the same to the Secretary of State, whose instructions they shall follow in the matter. They may make additional rules, provided such additional rules be not inconsistent with the rules sanctioned by the Secretary of State, and be immediately reported to him for his approval.

Reference of
difficulties to
Secretary of State.

XVIII. In all questions of difficulty, with which they feel uncertain that they have power to deal, or on which they think it undesirable, owing to peculiar circumstances, that they should take the responsibility of dealing, it shall be the duty of the Board to refer the matter directly to the Secretary of State.

BUILDINGS.

Special purposes specified
to be observed.

XIX. When by the Secretary of State's order, or the other authority by which the building is made a legal prison, certain cells have been set apart for male and for female prisoners respectively, and a certain portion of the prison has been appointed for the detention of civil prisoners, the special purposes so assigned for each department of the building must be strictly observed. Provided that, where in the case of any emergency it is found necessary for the public safety, or to secure the due administration of justice, that prisoners are placed in parts of the prison not assigned to the class to whom such prisoners belong, an immediate intimation thereof shall be sent to the Crown Agent.

Provision for emergencies. |

XX. In a prison where there are both male and female prisoners, the structure and arrangements must be such that no prisoner of the one sex can see or hold communication with a prisoner of the other. It must also be as far as practicable so arranged that no male officer of a prison shall have access to any cell in the female department, or to any place where female prisoners are at exercise, unless he is attended by the matron or a female officer acting for the matron. In prisons where the stated average number of prisoners exceed twenty, this will be accomplished by assigning a separate building or department to the female prisoners, with a separate entrance, and a lock different from the other locks, to which no male officer shall be permitted to have a key. When the structure of the prison does not admit of this, the object must be accomplished, as far as practicable, by a separate form of locks for the cells occupied by females, or in some other efficient shape.

Provision for separation of the sexes.

XXI. The structure of the prison must be such as to enable the rules for the separate system of discipline of prisoners to be effectually carried out. They shall be such that for each prisoner there shall at all times be not less than 800 cubic feet of available space.

Provision for separate discipline.

XXII. The cubic contents of each cell or room in which a prisoner may lawfully be detained shall be ascertained and recorded. Either a note of the cubic contents shall, in each instance, be placed over the door, or the whole cubic contents of the several parts shall be exhibited in some accessible place, in such manner that any one inspecting the prison shall be able, without difficulty, to note the contents of every cell or room.

Note of cubic contents of cells, &c.

XXIII. If the accommodation of the prison consists of more than twenty rooms or cells, the Board shall cause a plan, 1st, of the drains, 2d, of the water-supply pipes, and 3d, of the method of ventilation, to be made, and to be preserved for reference in the governor's office.

Plan of drains, pipes, and ventilation.

XXIV. The keys and locks shall be so adjusted that the following three classes of locks can severally only be opened by a key that will not open any of the others, viz., 1. The lock of the outer gate; 2. The lock of the entrance door to Separate keys, for different parts.

the prison buildings; 3. The locks of the cells or apartments in which prisoners are detained, keeping in view the provision for separation of males and females as per Rule LXXXI.

Plans to be submitted to Secretary of State.

XXV. All applications to the Secretary of State under the Act for approval of plans, whether for a new prison or for an alteration or enlargement in an existing prison, must be accompanied by a description of the works and by plans prepared by a professional architect. Such plans must contain elevations, sections vertical and horizontal, and a scale of dimensions, so as to enable the cubic contents of each part to be easily ascertained.

Where court-house and prison in conjunction.

XXVI. Where a prison and court-house are to be contained within the same building, care must be taken that the portion adapted for a prison be specially referred to the Secretary of State by the Board, independently of any reference that may be made to him as to the part intended for a court-house. When a prison is conjoined in a group of buildings with a court-house or any other building, all the portions used for prison purposes,—as for the residence or occupation of officers, cooking, washing, storing, and the like, must be part of the prison, and be included in the order legalising the prison.

Residence for governor and matron.

XXVII. For every prison there must be accommodation for the residence of the governor and of the matron.

Means of communication in emergencies.

XXVIII. Each prisoner must, in case of accident, sudden illness, or any serious emergency, have the means of giving the alarm to the staff without disturbing the prison, and for that end the best arrangement suggested by the structure of the prison and the condition of the staff shall be adopted.

Chapel.

XXIX. The following are necessary arrangements:—

An apartment suitable for use as a chapel, where the stated average number of prisoners is five or more.

Punishment cells.

One punishment cell, and additional punishment cells in proportion to each fifty of the stated average number of male and of female prisoners respectively, the cells being so placed and constructed that their inmates cannot disturb the prison by shouting or otherwise.

Baths.

One bath, and additional baths in proportion to each fifty of the stated average number of male and of female prisoners respectively.

Vermin destruction.

An apparatus for the destruction of vermin on the clothes of prisoners.

THE GOVERNOR.

Head of the establishment.

XXX. The governor is the responsible head of the prison and superior in authority to every other officer.

123

He is entitled to examine any report or other document relating to the prison prepared by any other officer.

XXXI. In the management of the prison he is subject to the lawful instructions of the Board, when transmitted to him under the signature of their clerk. To take instructions from the Board.

XXXII. In all cases of doubt as to the interpretation of a rule or an instruction, his decision is to be binding on the other officers and to relieve them from responsibility. His decision to bind other officers.

XXXIII. He shall enter in the "governor's order book" all permanent orders which he shall issue relating to the management and discipline of the Prison. Permanent orders to be entered.

XXXIV. He is responsible for giving effect to all warrants issued by competent authority, and brought to the prison, and to all orders directed to him by authority of the Secretary of State. To give effect to warrants and directions.

XXXV. He is not to admit any person into the prison as a prisoner, unless such person is brought to the prison with a written warrant for his detention. To admit no prisoner without warrant.

XXXVI. The Board may appoint a deputy governor. When the governor is not in the prison, such deputy governor shall exercise his power and be subject to his responsibilities. In such case, wherever the word "governor" is used in these rules, the words "deputy governor" are to be held as substituted for it. Deputy governor.

XXXVII. Where there is no deputy governor the governor shall appoint some officer to act for him in his absence as his substitute, recording the appointment and its date in his journal. When the governor is absent from the prison, the officer so appointed is entitled to exercise his powers, and in their exercise is subject to his responsibilities; but it will be the duty of such officer to reserve for the governor's consideration all matters that do not demand immediate settlement. If, from any emergency in a prison where there are more than two male officers, the governor and his deputy or substitute should both require to be absent, the senior male officer will be responsible for the charge of the prison. Provision shall be made that the prison be never left for a period, however short, without a male officer. The governor shall never sleep out of the prison without recording in his journal the fact of his absence and its cause, and reporting the same to the County Board. Arrangement for temporary absence of superior officers.

XXXVIII. When any subordinate officer is found by the governor to be unfit for his duties, or defective in moral character, it shall be his duty to take immediate steps for his removal; and, in the first place, to report the case in Removal and suspension of subordinate officers.

writing to the clerk of the Board, engrossing a copy of the report in his journal.

Governor to see that subordinate officers are acquainted with rules, &c.

XXXIX. The governor shall see that every subordinate officer has a copy of the Rules for Prisons, and a statement of his particular duties; and shall be responsible for ascertaining that each officer has a thorough knowledge of the rules, and of his own duties.

Cleanliness.

XL. He is responsible for the preservation of cleanliness, both in every part of the building, yards, and grounds, and in the persons of the prisoners, their clothing, bedding, and everything in use. He shall see that the walls are white-washed as often as necessary, and that no cutting, writing, or marks of any kind are allowed to remain on the furniture or walls, or on anything belonging to the prison.

Warming, ventilating, and lighting.

XLI. He is responsible that the prison be properly heated, ventilated, and lighted. He shall see that there is at least one thermometer in the prison, and a daily record kept of the temperature; and if the prison consist of cells or apartments to the number of twenty, that a thermometer is placed in the coldest cell of the prison, another in the warmest cell, and a third in a cell of average temperature, and that a daily record is made of the temperature in each of these cells.

Precautions against escape.

XLII. He is responsible for the prison being secure. To this end he shall not allow any trees to grow against any of the walls, or anything to be fixed to the walls, or any rubbish to be laid near them; and he shall take care that no ladders, spades, or other things likely to facilitate escape be left exposed either during the night or day. Either the governor, or some officer to whom that duty shall be committed by him, shall see that the provisions of this rule, and of the eight following subsidiary rules, are strictly observed, viz. :—

1. Due care shall be taken that all the prison locks are secure and kept in good order, more particularly those of the entrance door, and of all stair, gallery, or passage doors placed for the better security of the prison.

2. The entrance door of the prison is never to be left open; nor shall its key either be left in the lock or taken within the prison, but shall invariably remain in charge of some one outside the door.

3. Before entering a cell, the officer shall take the cell door key from the lock, but before doing so shall shoot the bolt or lock so that the door cannot be closed upon him. But the door of any cell in which a prisoner is confined is never at any time to be kept unlocked longer than is absolutely necessary; and this shall also be the case in regard to all stair, gallery, and passage doors.

4. The governor, or an officer deputed by him, shall, once a day at least, carefully inspect every cell, and particularly examine the window gratings.

5. Any implements or materials of work calculated to facilitate escape, shall be carefully collected and removed each night from the cells, and locked up in some secure place.

6. Whenever a prisoner requires to leave his cell for any particular purpose, he is never to be lost sight of by an officer until he is locked up again. While outside, if the prison yard be not perfectly secure, the officer must never allow the prisoner to be beyond the reach of his arm.

7. Prisoners sentenced to penal servitude and untried prisoners shall not be employed in the menial offices of the prison. Any prisoner who may be so employed shall never be left unwatched, and must be closely noticed when cleaning or otherwise employed in any passage or gallery by which he could have access to the main door of the prison, or where he can get into communication with prisoners in their cells.

XLIII. In every prison in which the stated average number of prisoners is less than two hundred, he shall go through the whole of the male department, and see every male prisoner at least once each day; but in prisons of a larger size this duty may, in part, be discharged by another officer, the governor seeing every male prisoner at least three times in each week. In all prisons the governor shall go through the whole female department, and see every female prisoner at least once each week. He shall also, at least once during every week, go through the prison at an uncertain hour of the night, and record in his journal the visit, with the hour, and the state of the prison at the time.

Inspection of prison and prisoners.

XLIV. In every prison in which the stated average number exceeds twenty he shall conduct or superintend a search of the person of each prisoner, and of the cell, with the furniture, bedding, and other articles contained in it, once in each of the quarters ending respectively in March, June, September, and December, taking care that no such search is made either on the same day of the week or the same day of the month as the preceding search.

Quarterly search of prisoners and cells.

XLV. He shall, within twenty-four hours after the admission of a prisoner, make him acquainted with such Prisoners to be made acquainted with

- rules; sheets to be hung up. rules as relate to the personal conduct and treatment of prisoners. If there be sheets of such rules as supplied by Her Majesty's Stationery Office by the authority of the Secretary of State, it shall be his duty to see that one of them is suspended in each cell or room where a prisoner is confined. It shall be sufficient compliance with the first part of this rule if the prisoner's attention be called to such sheet of rules, provided that he be asked if he can read the rules, and if he says he cannot, that they be read over to him.
- Due time to be allowed for instruction of prisoners. XLVI. He shall see that all prisoners, including those sentenced to hard labour, have such an amount of time allowed to them for instruction as the chaplain may think proper, subject to the approval of the Board.
- Governor, prison officers, and prisoners to attend divine service. XLVII. He shall on each Sunday attend divine service, if it be held as per Rule LVII., at least once, unless prevented by some duty, inserting in his journal the omission and the cause thereof. He shall see that the prisoners attend, unless prevented by illness, or excused by leave of absence or by prison regulation, and that subordinate officers, sufficient for security, attend. He shall see that the chaplain receives weekly a list of the names of prisoners absent from divine service, with a statement of the causes of their absence.
- Journal. XLVIII. He shall record in his journal all occurrences of importance.
- Deaths and escapes. XLIX. Upon the death of any prisoner he shall give immediate information to the clerk of the Board, to the procurator fiscal for the county, and, when practicable, to the nearest relations of the deceased, and shall record the fact of his having done so in his journal. He shall also give immediate information to the clerk of the Board if any prisoner makes his escape, or if any other unusual and important occurrence takes place. In the case of an escape of a prisoner, he shall instantly give information to the procurator fiscal and superintendent of police or chief constable of the district, sending them, at the same time, a full description of the prisoner.
- Removals to other prisons. L. On the removal of a prisoner to another prison, he shall send with him an extract from the register of criminal prisoners, in the form prescribed by the late General Board of Prisons, unless such form shall be altered by the Secretary of State.
- Intimation to friends of prisoners before their discharge. LI. Before any prisoner under the age of eighteen years is discharged, he shall inform such prisoner's relations and friends (if there are any of good character whose names and residence he can ascertain) on what day and at what time the prisoner will be discharged, that they may have the opportunity of attending to receive him.

LII. On the first Wednesday of each of the months of January, April, July, and October he shall make a written report to the Board on the state of the prison during the previous quarter. In this report he shall set forth such particulars as the Board shall direct, and also make a statement under each of the following heads:—

- 1. Whether all the rules of the prison have been in full operation, and if not, the extent and reasons of the exceptions.
- 2. How far the other officers have shown themselves to be well qualified for their duties, and in what manner they have discharged them.
- 3. The number of punishments inflicted; a statement of the severest punishment inflicted during the quarter; and of any offences or irregularities of an unusual kind committed by prisoners.
- 4. What has been the general health of the prisoners, and whether he is aware of any cause of sickness in operation.
- 5. Whether the prison is in good repair, and secure against escapes.
- 6. Whether the drains are in a good state.
- 7. Whether any parts of the prison are damp.
- 8. Whether anything remarkable has occurred during the quarter.
- 9. Any practical suggestions which he may have to offer for the improvement of the prison in any respect.
- 10. All entries made by visiting members of the Board.
- 11. The report in the governor's journal of the last quarterly search, as per Rule XLIV.

MATRON.

LIII. Under the direction of the governor, the matron shall have the general charge of the female department, and be responsible to him for its proper management, he being responsible for the same to the Board.

To have charge of female department.

LIV. The duties of the matron, in her department, shall, under the governor, be the same as his duties in the male department; but, instead of communicating with the clerk of the Board when any difficulty arises which it is beyond her power to remove, she is forthwith to apply to the governor.

General duties.

Daily inspection. LV. She shall go through the whole female department and see every female prisoner at least once each day.

Matron to attend governor on visits. LVI. No male officer or visitor shall enter the female's prison unless accompanied by the matron, or by some other female officer; and it shall be the duty of the matron to attend the governor whenever he visits the females' prison, or, if prevented, to appoint one of the other female officers to attend him.

CHAPLAIN.

Divine service. LVII. He shall perform divine service once at least on every Sunday to every class of prisoners, where there are five or more prisoners in custody; and he shall not delegate any of his duties to others, excepting in case of absence on leave, or from sickness or other necessary cause. In any such case he shall appoint, with the approval of the Board, a substitute to act for him, inserting the substitute's name and residence in his journal. In the event of his being suddenly prevented from performing his duty by illness or other necessary cause, he may, with the concurrence of the governor, accept the assistance of a minister or licentiate of the Church of Scotland in the performance of Divine service in the prison; inserting the fact and the name of such clergyman or licentiate in his journal.

Substitute in absence. LVIII. He or his assistant, if there be an assistant chaplain, shall see every male prisoner in private at least once each week, but he may judge by the effect of the moral and religious instruction given by the matron, or other authorised female instructor, how frequently it is necessary for him to see the female prisoners separately. In all cases of male prisoners committed for considerable periods, or under serious charges, he shall be careful to see them in private soon after their admission, and, if convicted, a short time before their liberation also.

To see prisoners in private. LIX. The chaplain shall daily see all sick prisoners (viz., those excused from labour under the authority of the surgeon) and all prisoners under punishment. He shall frequently visit every room and cell occupied by prisoners; and attend, at all reasonable times, any prisoner who may require his spiritual advice and assistance.

Duties to the sick and those under punishment. LX. The chaplain shall have charge of the library for the use of the prisoners. He shall compare it with the catalogue once in each quarter.

Charge of library. LXI. He shall keep a character book, in which to enter such particulars respecting each prisoner's early training, habits, connexions, character, &c., and the apparent cause of his offence, as he may think desirable to record, and believe to be true.

LXII. He shall keep a journal, including, among other matters, the date of each visit. This journal to be open to the governor. Journal.

LXIII. He shall make a report in writing to the Board on the first Wednesday of each of the months of January, April, July, and October, on the state of his department during the previous quarter. This report shall state the time which he has given to his duties, and the manner in which that time has been employed; and shall contain statements under the following heads:— Quarterly reports.

1. Whether all the rules relating to the chaplain have been fully observed during the quarter; and if not, the extent and reasons of the exceptions.

2. If charged with the elementary instruction of the prisoners, or intrusted with its superintendence, then the chaplain shall give a table, in the annexed form, showing the state of the education of the prisoners (except those received during the quarter then ended) as compared with what it was at the time of their admission; but if the chaplain have not either of these duties, then the governor shall include the information in his report.

	Present state of Education.

3. An account of the condition of the library, with a statement of the result of his last quarterly examination, and his opinion whether the collection of books is sufficient.

To yield to governor in case of difference of opinion.

LXIV. As the governor is the responsible head of the prison, the chaplain shall be expected to yield to him if any case should arise of a difference of opinion between himself and the governor; but if in any such instance the chaplain should deem the instructions of the governor inconsistent with the proper performance of his own duties, or with the observance of any rule laid down for his guidance, it shall be his duty to communicate such fact, in writing, to the clerk of the Board; apprising the governor of the necessity for his taking such a step.

SURGEON.

General duties.

LXV. The surgeon shall have the general charge of the health of the prisoners, and shall be responsible for the professional treatment of those who require such treatment.

To examine prisoners on admission.

LXVI. He shall see every prisoner as soon after his admission as practicable; and, except as respects those who are committed for a less period than three months, he shall see that each prisoner is weighed and the weight recorded, and shall carefully examine him as to the hardness or softness of his muscles, the pliancy or stiffness of his limbs, and the general state of his health; the result being duly recorded. Any evident peculiarities in the mental qualities of prisoners should be noted.

Visits to sick prisoners, and weekly examinations.

LXVII. He shall visit sick prisoners as often as the different cases may require; and twice in each week (or, where the prison is not legal for the detention of convicted prisoners beyond a month, once in each week,) he shall go into every room and cell in the prison, and see every prisoner. He is responsible in the course of his visits or otherwise for discovering whether there is any cause of sickness in operation, especially from the causes following, viz.,—want of cleanliness, either in the persons of the prisoners or in their clothing or bedding; insufficient supply of food or of water; unwholesome quality of food or of water; want of warmth, either from the coldness of the cell or from the insufficiency of the clothing or bedding; want of ventilation; dampness or malaria; imperfect drainage; insufficiency of exercise in the open air. The surgeon shall record the date and result of his examinations in a register to be kept at the prison, and open to inspection. Whenever he discovers any cause of sickness, he must give immediate information of it to the governor; and if the evil be not remedied immediately, it shall be his duty to communicate the fact in writing to the clerk of the Board. If, to remove the cause of sickness, the surgeon deems it necessary in any case that the operation of any prison rule shall be suspended, the governor becomes responsible for employing the powers of suspension conferred by Rule XVII.

LXVIII. Once in each month the surgeon shall repeat the personal examination made on admission, shall see each prisoner weighed and the weight recorded, and shall make a note in his register for comparison between the prisoner's state of health on admission and his state of health at each such subsequent examination, as to every prisoner who has been in confinement for three months or upwards. Monthly examination.

LXIX. He shall enter in his register every cause of death, and every case of illness which is sufficient to prevent a prisoner from working, or which is infectious. Register of sickness and deaths.

LXX. The surgeon shall bring immediately under the notice of the governor any case in which it appears to him that application should be made to the sheriff for the removal of the prisoner in terms of Rule II. sect. 1. Cases of danger to life.

LXXI. On the removal of any prisoner who has been in confinement for one week or upwards to another prison (except for temporary purposes, such as examination or trial), he shall fill up a schedule relating to the prisoner's health, in the form prescribed by the late General Board, unless such form be altered by the Secretary of State. This schedule shall be forwarded to the prison to which the prisoner is removed, and submitted for the examination and written acquiescence or dissent of the surgeon of that prison. Removal to other prisons.

LXXII. He shall, immediately on his appointment, submit to the Board the name of some properly qualified medical man, who, with the approval of the Board, shall act for him in his absence; and the clerk of the Board shall forthwith communicate, in writing, the name and residence of such medical man to the governor of the prison. Substitute in absence.

LXXIII. He shall make a report, in writing, to the Board, on the first Wednesday of each of the months of January, April, July, and October, on the state of the health of the prisoners during the previous quarter, and on the state of the prison in the various matters affecting health, especially those to which his attention is called in the preceding rules, and, among other particulars, he shall give the following, viz.:— Quarterly reports.

1. The number of cases of illness and deaths, together with the number of prisoners removed or liberated on account of illness.

2. The chief kinds of illness during the quarter, with a statement of what he considers to have been the principal causes of the illness.

3. A list of the prisoners, if any, who are not in good health at the end of the quarter, showing how long such prisoners have been ill, their ages, the nature of the disease of each, whether it was contracted before or after admission into the prison, and its probable cause, together with any remarks which may occur.

4. Whether all the rules relating to the surgeon have been fully observed during the quarter; and, if not, the extent and reasons of the exceptions.

5. Any practical suggestions which may have occurred to him for the improvement of the prison, as respects the health of the inmates.

Visits of other surgeons.

LXXIV. Military prisoners may be visited by any military surgeon acting under competent authority; but no other person shall be allowed to visit any prisoner, whether civil or criminal, as a medical attendant, except the regular surgeon of the prison, or the substitute who shall have been appointed to act in his absence, unless by a special order given by the governor of the prison, or by some other person authorized by the Board to give such order.

To yield to governor in case of difference of opinion.

LXXV. As the governor is the responsible head of the prison, the surgeon shall be expected to yield to him, if any case should arise of a difference of opinion between himself and the governor, on any matter not having relation to the medical treatment of prisoners; but if in any instance the surgeon should deem the instructions of the governor inconsistent with the proper performance of his own duties, or with the observance of any rule laid down for his guidance, or with the health of any prisoner, it shall be his duty to communicate such fact, in writing, to the clerk of the Board, apprizing the governor of the necessity for his taking such a step.

GENERAL RULES FOR PRISONERS.

Obedience to officers—reference to Board.

LXXVI. All prisoners must obey the officers having charge over them. Should a prisoner at any time consider himself aggrieved, he is at liberty to complain to the governor; or, if the case relate to the governor himself, he may complain to any member of the Board visiting the prison, or by a letter directed to their clerk.

Admission to prison.

LXXVII. Every prisoner on admission shall be examined whether he is clean in his person and clothes, and free from infectious disorder; and, as soon as convenient afterwards, he shall be put into a bath, unless otherwise ordered by the surgeon, on account of the prisoner's health. Personal examination.

LXXVIII. Untried criminal prisoners are to be treated, as to clothing and otherwise, according to the instructions of the Board, as per Rule I. sect. 2. Clothing of criminal prisoners.

Convicted prisoners are to be clothed in the prison dress.

LXXIX. No criminal prisoner shall be allowed to retain in his personal possession any money or any other moveable article other than clothing in his possession when he is brought to the prison. If he is permitted to wear his own clothes, these must be carefully searched for such articles. An inventory shall be made of all the money or other articles taken from a prisoner. In the case of convicted prisoners the governor is not to be responsible for the preservation of such money or articles. It will be his duty to get them disposed of to any friends of the prisoner who are willing to take charge of them, obtaining a receipt from the convicted prisoner when he gives them up to such friends. Any money in a convicted prisoner's possession may be placed in a savings bank to his order. On the removal of a prisoner to a Government prison, no money or effects other than the clothing he has on shall accompany him. Disposal of prisoner's money and other effects.

LXXX. When there is any reason to suppose that there may be vermin or the seeds of contagion in the clothes of any prisoner, civil or criminal, means must be taken to purify them by washing, fumigation, exposure to great heat, or such other contrivance as may be deemed effectual; and, where it can readily be adopted, this precaution should be used as respects all clothes brought into a prison. Fumigation, &c.

LXXXI. Female prisoners shall be kept apart from male prisoners, and unconvicted from convicted prisoners; and, as far as the accommodation of the prison will admit, every adult untried prisoner, and every convicted prisoner sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 60 days, shall be kept in a separate cell, and so shall every adult convicted prisoner, whatever be the length of his imprisonment. Every prisoner shall sleep in a separate cell, unless the surgeon is of opinion that it would be dangerous to his health, bodily or mental. If a separate sleeping cell for each prisoner be impossible from the state of the accommodation, or inexpedient, in the opinion of the surgeon, on account of a prisoner's health, each prisoner must occupy a separate bed, and where male prisoners are associated there must be three at least in the apartment. Separation.

Order and cleanliness to be observed.

LXXXII. It shall be shown to every prisoner on his being put into his cell or room, that the place and furniture are clean, in good order, and free from cutting, scribbling, or other mark or disfigurement; and he shall be told that he will be required to keep them in that state.

Enforcement of law excluding articles from without.

LXXXIII. No articles for the use of prisoners are to be brought in, except by the governor's permission. Every attempt to infringe this rule must be entered in the governor's journal and reported to the clerk of the Board for prosecution, under sect. 75 of the Prisons Administration Act. There must be especial vigilance in enforcing this rule against the introduction of written communications, spirits, and tobacco.

Prohibition of drinking, smoking, and gambling in prison premises.

LXXXIV. Subject to the exceptions on medical grounds, and the supply of malt liquor to civil prisoners, no intoxicating liquor is to be drunk or tobacco is to be smoked, and no card-playing or games of chance of any kind are to be allowed. This rule is to be enforced in all parts of the premises liable to be frequented by prisoners or used for prison purposes, as for office, storing, cooking, baking, or washing. It is to be enforced not only on prisoners, but on officers and other persons.

Exercise.

LXXXV. All civil prisoners, and every criminal prisoner in confinement in a prison which is a legal place of detention for periods of one month or upwards, except convicted adult prisoners committed for less than one month, shall have an opportunity of taking daily exercise in the open air. The length of the time of exercise is to be regulated according to what may be considered necessary by the surgeon, who shall have power to direct that prisoners who have been committed for shorter periods than a month shall have air and exercise.

Prison hours.

LXXXVI. Except on Sundays the time of rising for criminal prisoners shall not be later than six o'clock at any season of the year; and the period between rising and going to bed shall not be less than fourteen hours. On Sundays prisoners may, at the discretion of the governor, rise an hour later, and go to bed an hour earlier.

Prison hours for external business.

LXXXVII. The prison hours for external business shall be from eight o'clock a.m. to seven o'clock p.m. throughout the year. Prisoners under warrant or caption shall be received at any time during the night or day. No prisoner shall be entitled to be liberated after seven o'clock p.m., or between that hour and eight o'clock on the following morning. Officers of the law under competent warrants or orders for serving writs or other legal process on persons within a prison, shall, if prevented by any necessary cause from serving such writs or legal process during the prison hours for external business, be admitted into the prison for that purpose at any hour; the governor making an entry in his register of each such occurrence, and reporting the same to the Board in his next quarterly report.

LXXXVIII. Every prisoner shall wash himself every morning and evening. He shall go into the bath at least once a week, unless when exempted by the surgeon on medical grounds. Every criminal prisoner shall be furnished with soap and with a separate towel and comb. Every criminal prisoner shall be supplied with clean linen, including shirt or shift and stockings, at least once each week; the washing being always done, even when the linen belongs to the prisoner, at the cost of the prison. Sheets shall be washed not less frequently than once each month. Male prisoners shall shave themselves or be shaved at least once each week.

Cleanliness.
Washing and bathing.
Soap, towels, and combs.
Clean linen, &c.

Shaving.

LXXXIX. Every convicted criminal prisoner shall be required to do ten hours work each day (exclusive of the time occupied at meals, exercise, and instruction), except on Sundays and general fast-days, and, with the further exception in the case of Jews, on Saturdays. The work shall, so far as practicable, be of a useful kind. Untried criminal prisoners and civil prisoners shall have an opportunity of working, and be supplied with tools and materials accordingly.

Work.

XC. In the case of all prisoners sentenced to imprisonment accompanied with hard labour, employment in one or other of the following modes shall be deemed and taken to constitute hard labour, viz.:—1. Employment at crank machinery; and, 2. Employment at picking oakum, dry, and in sufficient quantity to require the incessant and unremitting occupation of the prisoner throughout the whole ten hours of daily work prescribed by the immediately preceding rule. Such materials for work and tools as are not fixtures shall be removed from each cell at night.

Sentences to hard labour.

XCI. In the case of each prisoner employed at hard labour, it shall be determined by the governor of the prison, with the advice of the prison surgeon, whether the prisoner shall be employed at hard labour by crank machinery or at hard labour by picking oakum, subject to this provision, that all such prisoners, whether male or female, who are either aged or of very tender years, shall be employed at picking oakum. And no prisoner who, in the opinion of the prison surgeon, as certified by him in writing, on soul and conscience, could not be employed at hard labour by the crank machine or by picking oakum without the risk of such prisoner's health being thereby injuriously affected, shall be so employed; any case in which, on this ground, a prisoner shall be exempted from hard labour, to be entered, with a statement of the reasons, and copy of the relative medical certificate, in a special register to be kept by the governor, and submitted by him to the Board.

XCII. The number of revolutions of the crank machine shall on each lawful day, excepting Saturdays, be, in the case of every adult male prisoner employed at hard labour by crank machinery in a separate cell, a number not exceeding 14,400; in the case of each adult female and juvenile male prisoner so employed, a number not exceeding 12,000; and in the case of each juvenile female prisoner so employed, a number not exceeding 9,600. On Saturdays, the respective number of revolutions shall be reduced by one fourth in each case. The number of revolutions, and the weight, to be in each case fixed by the governor with the advice of the surgeon, and proportioned to the sex, age, and strength of the party at work, but the weight not to exceed eleven pounds in any case.

XCIII. Prisoners employed at hard labour by picking oakum shall, according to the strength and capacity for such work of the prisoners, which is in each case to be determined by the governor with the advice of the surgeon, be required to work as follows, viz. :—

1. Every male adult prisoner so employed shall be required to pick from two and one half to five pounds of dry oakum every lawful day, except on Saturdays, when he shall be required to pick three-fourths of the quantity allotted to him on other days.

2. Every juvenile male prisoner, and every adult female prisoner so employed, shall be required to pick from one and one half to three pounds of dry oakum every day, except on Saturdays, when they shall be required to do three-fourths of the ordinary quantity allotted to them on other days.

3. Every juvenile female prisoner so employed shall be required to pick from one to two and one half pounds of dry oakum every lawful day, except on Saturdays, when she shall be required to do three-fourths of the ordinary quantity allotted to her on other days.

Prisoners refusing to work-

XCIV. Criminal prisoners able to work and refusing to do so, and prisoners under sentence of hard labour refusing to be subjected to hard labour, or without good cause failing to complete their allotted tasks, shall be placed in solitary confinement, on the dietary prescribed under Rule CXVII. sect. 8, for prisoners under punishment for prison offences, and also may be required to sleep on the wooden guard-bed, described in Rule CIII., unless the surgeon shall deem it necessary to order them additional diet, or the ordinary kind of bed and bedding; and all cases of such punishments shall be duly entered by the governor in the register of punishments.

XCV. Where a criminal prisoner is acquitted, or has been discharged without being brought to trial, he shall, on acquittal or discharge, receive the net profit of his earnings. Earnings allowed to certain classes.

XCVI. In all cases, whether of the work of untried criminals or of civil prisoners, the governor shall be the sole judge of the net profit of the work, and of the deductions to be made for the use of tools, the cost of carriage, the loss from spoiled work, the risk of bad debts, and otherwise. Governor to strike balance of earnings.

XCVII. Convicted prisoners shall not be entitled to any portion of their earnings, nor to any extra allowance in consequence of any labour or work performed by them, whether before or after conviction. Convicted prisoners not to draw earnings.

XCVIII. On the liberation of any convicted criminal prisoner who shall have commended himself while in prison for good conduct, attention to instruction, improvement, and habits of industry, the governor may, with the approval of the Board, make an allowance to such prisoner in the form of clothes, tools, or money, as may be thought best, the amount of such allowance in no case to exceed the sum of ten shillings, in case such prisoner shall have been confined for the space of six months, and so in proportion for any longer or shorter period. Gratuity to well-conducted prisoners on liberation.

XCIX. Any prisoner may, in the discretion of the governor, and subject to the limitations and provisions of the 7th section of Rule XLII., be employed within the prison in the service of the prison, but not in the service of any officer,—always, however, under such arrangements as shall prevent any prisoner so employed from being brought into undue contact or communication with other prisoners, unless in presence of and with the permission of an officer. Employment in service of prison.

C. Every criminal prisoner shall be supplied with a Food. sufficient quantity of plain but wholesome food (according to the dietaries and relative rules herein-after contained), to maintain good health and strength, but to allow nothing for mere indulgence.

CI. The prison dress shall be sufficiently warm for health, Clothing.

and must always be kept in good repair. The following articles, or others equivalent, shall form the dress, viz. :—

DRESS FOR MALE PRISONERS.

Jacket.
Waistcoat, with sleeves.
Trousers.
Shirt.
Pocket handkerchief.
Shoes and stockings.
Neck-handkerchief and cap when necessary.
Belt, when the prisoner has been in the habit of wearing one.
In winter, serge drawers, and the waistcoat to be lined with serge, and, for those who require it, an under waistcoat of serge.

FEMALE DRESS.

Striped shortgown.
Twilled cotton upper petticoat.
Blue plaiding under petticoat.
Bodice of stout twilled cotton.
Shift.
Pocket-handkerchief.
Shoes and stockings.
Neckerchief.
Cap when necessary.
Other necessary articles.
In winter, a drugget upper petticoat, instead of a cotton one.
Some large capes for prisoners of both sexes to wear in wet weather in the airing yards.

Bedding.

CII. Every prisoner, whether civil or criminal, shall, subject to the exception in the next rule, be supplied with sufficient bedding for warmth and health. The following articles, at least, shall be always supplied, viz. :—

Hammock or bedstead.
Mattress and pillow.
A sufficient number of blankets.
A pair of sheets.
Coverlet.

First month on guard-bed.

CIII. Each convicted criminal prisoner shall for the first month after conviction, or for the whole period of sentence where the duration of sentence is less than one month, be required to sleep on a wooden guard-bed, furnished with a wooden pillow, a sufficient quantity of covering being allowed for warmth. The governor, at the recommendation of the surgeon; may exempt from this rule any prisoner whose age or infirmities may render it unsafe.

CIV. Every prisoner sentenced to three months' imprisonment or upwards who is unable to read and write easily, shall receive instruction in reading and writing. A specimen shall be kept of the writing of every prisoner who receives instruction in writing, both when he begins and when he leaves off, so as to show the progress made. This rule is not to exclude the extension of instruction in arithmetic and other branches of education where they are practicable, nor is it to exclude any other classes of prisoners besides those defined in the rule from partaking in the instruction.

Instruction in reading and writing.

CV. A Bible or New Testament shall be placed in every cell or room used by a prisoner, if the prisoner be able to read, and every prison where convicted prisoners can be detained for one month or upwards shall be furnished with a suitable library, of which a catalogue shall be kept. When a book is received back from a prisoner, it shall be examined, to see whether it is free from scribbling or other injury; and if there be any scribbling in it, the book shall not be given to any other prisoner until the scribbling has either been erased or pasted over.

Bibles and libraries.

CVI. Including the visits for the supply of food and examining and changing the work, every prisoner in a separate cell shall be visited by some officer of the prison at least ten times in each day.

Visits of officers.

UNTRIED PRISONERS.

CVII. Visits by relations or friends shall be allowed at such reasonable times (not more frequently, except under special circumstances, than once in each week) as may be fixed by the governor, subject to the control of the Board. To every prisoner not fully committed "until liberated in due course of law," access must be at the discretion of the procurator-fiscal who has charge of the case. If, in reference to Rule I. sect. 3, it should ever be judged necessary to forbid the legal adviser of an untried prisoner admission, or to refuse to let him see the prisoner in private, the fact, with the reason thereof, shall be entered in the governor's journal, and the prisoner shall be informed of it.

Visits to prisoners.

Legal advisers.

CONVICED PRISONERS.

Visits to convicted prisoners.

CVIII. Visits shall not be allowed until after the expiration of the first three months from the date of conviction, but subsequently to that period, such prisoners may be allowed to receive visits once in the course of each successive three months. In case of sickness or other special circumstances, however, such prisoners may be allowed, at the discretion of the governor, to see their relations and friends at other times, such special circumstances to be entered in the governor's journal.

Visits of ministers other than those of the Established Church.

CIX. Any prisoner who is not a member of the Established Church may be visited by a minister of the church to which he belongs, in order to receive from such minister the instruction and council which he would otherwise receive from the prison chaplain, under such restrictions imposed by the Board as shall guard against the introduction of improper persons, and as shall prevent improper communications. In all cases where any person professing to be a clergyman not of the Established Church desires access to a prisoner of his own denomination, the governor, if satisfied that his statement is true, is to give him access to such prisoner, unless he see reason to the contrary, which he shall record in his journal.

Power to sanction visitors.

CX. The Board are empowered, if they see fit, to frame regulations for the reception by prisoners of visitors likely to serve the objects of prison discipline, by communicating to them instruction or good advice.

Prisoners under sentence of death.

CXI. In the case of a prisoner under sentence of death, if the convict is a member of the Established Church, the duty and responsibility of affording him religious instruction shall be in the chaplain, if not otherwise arranged. The Board, however, are empowered to provide the convict, whether he belongs to the Established Church or not, with a clergyman of his own choice. Throughout the whole period between sentence and execution, regular entries shall be made in the register of the prison of every visit which shall be paid to the convict, specifying the name and designation of the visitor, the authority under which he received admission, the hour at which the visit is made, and the duration of the visit; and in all cases of admission for the purposes above mentioned the order, whether general or special, must proceed from the Board. After the sentence has been carried into execution, the clerk of the Board shall transmit to the Secretary of State a transcript of the entries referred to. On the day of execution all strangers shall be excluded, except any clergyman in attendance as above, and the persons authorized to be present by statute.

CXII. Untried criminal prisoners shall be allowed to send and receive letters, unless the governor shall know a sufficient cause why any such letters should not be sent or received, in which case he shall record the fact in his journal. Convicted prisoners shall not be allowed, unless upon special emergency, and with the governor's approval, to send and receive more than one letter in the course of each quarter of a year, the first quarter being calculated from the date of conviction. The governor shall open and read every parcel or letter to or from criminal prisoners, except such letters as are addressed to the chairman or clerk of the Board or other person in authority, and in every case where he shall deem it necessary to withhold a parcel or letter either to or from a prisoner he shall record the fact in his journal.

Letters to and from prisoners.

CXIII. No supplies of food, and no article of any other kind from without (except parcels or letters, as already mentioned) shall be allowed to convicted prisoners; and none such shall be allowed to untried prisoners, except under peculiar circumstances, to be judged of by the governor.

Other articles from without.

CXIV. The following are the authorized methods of punishment:—

Punishments.

1. Deprivation of work for a period.
2. Setting to hard labour for a period, in terms of Nos. XC. to XCIV.
3. Isolation at exercise.
4. Isolation at chapel.
5. Forfeiture of privileges earned.
6. Reduction of diet.
7. Restraint of the limbs.
8. Putting in irons.
9. Confinement in dark punishment cell.
10. Sleeping in wooden guard bed, as per No. CIII.

Punishment may be awarded by one or more of such means.

No putting in irons or confinement in dark cell is to be for more than seventy-two hours.

CXV. Every prisoner is liable to punishment for any one of the acts following:—

Punishable offences.

1. Breach of any rule or regulation.
2. Disobedience to the orders of any officer.
3. Insolence to any officer or visitor.
4. Disturbing the prison by noise or otherwise.

5. Profane swearing.
6. Assaulting or quarrelling with a fellow prisoner.
7. Using indecent words or behaviour.
8. Idleness or negligence at work.
9. Wilfully or carelessly damaging or destroying any part of the prison premises or furniture, clothing bedding, implements of work, materials, wrought goods, books, or documents.
10. Attempting by speaking, writing, or signal, to communicate with any other prisoner with whom he has not special permission at the time to communicate.
11. Failing to give up money or other articles in his possession on admission.
12. Having any article hidden about the person or otherwise.
13. Obtaining liquor or tobacco.
14. Tampering with the arrangements for ventilation, heating, or lighting.

16. Failure to perform the prescribed amount of work or labour.
17. Refusing, without excuse, to take exercise in the manner prescribed.
18. Leaving the cell or other place where by regulation or order the prisoner ought to be.
19. Failure to rise from or go to bed at the prescribed time.
20. Refusing without excuse to attend divine service.
21. Irreverent behaviour during divine service.
22. Refusing to be photographed, or wilfully obstructing the process of photographing.
23. Making any malicious or idle charge against an officer.

Conditions as to punishments.

CXVI. Conditions of punishment :—

1. The punishment is to be entered in the register of punishments before it is inflicted, and its purport is to be read by the governor from the register to the prisoner punished.
2. No reduction of diet shall be awarded without the consent of the surgeon, who will put his initials to the entry in the register.
3. Every punishment by putting in irons or confinement in dark cell must be intimated to the surgeon.

P43

4. The name of the officer who has given in the complaint or information leading to the punishment is to be recorded along with the names of any other officers who have given testimony or information in the matter.
5. If there are other officers available, no one whose name is so recorded is to be employed in giving effect to the punishment.
6. When any force is necessary in giving effect to a punishment, at least two officers must be employed.

1 pint of gruel; 8 oz. of bread.	8 oz. of bread	1 pint of gruel; 8 oz. of bread.

Rules for the preparation of the respective diets.

CXVIII. The following directions relate to the foregoing dietaries, viz. :—

1. Two pints of barley broth must contain,—first, 4 oz. of barley, or 3 oz. of barley and 1 oz. of pease; second, 2 oz. of marrow-bones or ox-head, or 1 oz. of hough or neck, or 1 oz. of some other meat, or $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. of dripping or suet; and third, a proper quantity of onions, leeks, carrots, turnips, cabbages, or other vegetables. The oatmeal gruel, when made in quantities exceeding 50 pints, to contain $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. of oatmeal per pint, and 2 oz. per pint when made in less quantities. The gruel on alternate days to be sweetened with $\frac{3}{4}$ oz. of molasses or sugar, and seasoned with salt.
2. Half a pint of tea must contain $\frac{1}{8}$ oz. of tea, $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. of sugar, and 1 oz. of milk.
3. An equal quantity of potato soup, or pease soup, or barley-milk, may (with the limitations hereafter specified) be substituted for the barley broth. Two pints of potato soup must contain 1 lb. of potatoes (instead of 4 oz. of barley), with the same ingredients in other respects as two pints of barley broth. Two pints of pease soup must contain $4\frac{1}{2}$ oz. of pease, the other ingredients being the same as in the barley broth and potato soup, except that the quantity of vegetables may be smaller by about one-half. Two pints of barley milk must contain 4 oz. of barley (boiled in water till it is soft, and the water partly boiled away), with $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of good skimmed sweet milk and a little salt, the rest of the quantity being made up with water.
4. Fish and barley broth may be substituted the one for the other, at the rate of 6 oz. of fish for 1 pint of broth.
5. Barley-bannocks, or bread made of wheat and oatmeal mixed, may be substituted for wheaten bread on one day of each week, and oat cake on another day, the oat cake to be of the same weight as the wheaten bread, but the barley-bannock must contain a weight of meal equal to the weight of wheaten bread, making the bannock itself somewhat heavier. The wheaten bread may be made of second-flour or over-heads.

6. Potatoes, whether in their ordinary form or made into soup, must not be given for dinner more than twice each week ; but they may be given for supper as often as may be convenient, provided that they be not so given on the days on which the prisoners have potatoes or potato soup for dinner.
7. Either fresh skimmed milk, or butter-milk, may be used.
8. Salt must be given with each meal.
9. Especial care must be taken to preserve the potatoes, so that they shall not vegetate or be injured in any way. No potatoes must be used unless they are quite sound ; and it is recommended that, as a general rule, potatoes be not used from the end of April until the ensuing autumn.
10. If, from any unforeseen emergency, milk should not be obtainable, there may be substituted for it a like quantity of treacle water, at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ oz. treacle to a pint of water ; but when this substitute is used, there must be added to the dietary in the proper table, 6 oz. of ox-heads in the broth or soup, or 4 oz. of cheese.
11. A change of food being beneficial to health, it is directed that the dinner, on at least two days in the week, shall be different from the dinner on the other days.
12. In weighing or measuring the food the imperial weights and measures must always be used.
13. Potatoes and other vegetables must be weighed after they are washed, but before they are cooked. Meat must also be weighed before being cooked.
14. The hours of meal throughout the year shall be as follows :—Breakfast at $\frac{1}{4}$ past 7 in the morning, dinner at 1 in the afternoon, and supper at 7 in the evening.
15. In the evening, work should cease a quarter of an hour before supper time ; and no prisoner should be required to work after supper unless he has neglected to perform his stated quantity in the ordinary working hours.
16. The eating and drinking vessels in which the food is distributed should not be collected till half an hour after the prisoners have received them, at breakfast and supper, and till 40 minutes after, at dinner.

CXIX. The surgeon shall have power to make any variations in particular cases from the foregoing dietaries which he may deem necessary, always, however, recording the same in writing.

Powers and duty of surgeon as to dietaries.

CIVIL PRISONERS.

The following rules apply to civil prisoners only, as defined by sect. 4 of the Prisons Administration Act.

CXX. They are to rise and go to bed at such times as the governor, with the concurrence of the Board, may direct,

Time of rising and going to bed.

- but they are not to be required to rise before seven o'clock throughout the eight months from March to October inclusive, nor before eight o'clock throughout the other four months.
- Discipline. CXXI. They must submit to such arrangements as the governor, with the concurrence of the Board, thinks necessary for secure custody, cleanliness, quietness, and order.
- Visitors. CXXII. The admission of visitors shall be subject to such restrictions as the governor, with concurrence of the Board, may direct, but none must be permitted to be present at meal-times. When the governor suspects that any visitor has some illegal or mischievous object in view, he may either exclude him, or permit the visit only in the presence of an officer, reporting to the Board in either case.
- Letters. CXXIII. Letters shall be allowed to pass to and from prisoners, but if the governor suspect that there is anything in a letter relating to a crime or illegality, he is to hand it to the procurator-fiscal to be dealt with according to law, apprising the prisoner of the fact, and recording it in his journal.
- Food. CXXIV. The food to be admitted for them from without is subject to such restraints for the suppression of luxurious living as the governor, with the concurrence of the Board, may direct. They may be furnished at their own charge with food, according to any of the tables of dietaries for criminal prisoners in daily use in the prison.
- Restraints on liquor, &c. CXXV. They are not to have the use of alcoholic liquor, of wine, or of tobacco, unless under a certificate by the surgeon setting forth the medical grounds on which he considers the indulgence necessary and the precise extent to which it should be allowed. They may be allowed malt liquor not exceeding one pint per day. To prevent abuse, such liquor is to be supplied from some one shop selected by the governor, and to be at the prisoner's disposal only when he is at dinner.
- Messages. CXXVI. They may employ persons outside in messages, subject to such restrictions as the governor, with the concurrence of the Board, may impose. But no prison officer is to be so employed further than in taking letters or parcels to the nearest post receiving box.
- Work. CXXVII. Those who desire to work under the arrangements for the working of criminal prisoners, shall be allowed to do so. It shall be in the power of the governor to let them work in any other manner, if he finds that it can be arranged without disturbing the discipline or order of the prison. The money value of all work done by them under this rule shall be credited to them in terms of Rules XCV. and XCVI.

MISCELLANEOUS RULES.

CXXVIII. Every new prison shall be built, and all extensive alterations and repairs shall be made, by public contract; and all large purchases shall be made in the same way, including, in the case at least of all prisons where the stated average number of prisons is above ten, the purchase of the chief articles of food. Contracts.

CXXIX. No child who is not a prisoner shall be received into a prison or allowed to remain there, unless it has not been weaned, and is also under one year old, except in any case in which, in the opinion of the surgeon, the child cannot be safely weaned or separated from its mother. Before any child shall be so weaned or separated, it shall be inspected by the prison surgeon, who shall certify to that effect in writing if it may be weaned or separated with safety,—the certificate to be deposited with the governor, who shall insert a copy of the same in his journal for reference. All such children as are admitted shall be supplied with suitable food and clothing, and in all respects properly provided for during the time they remain, at the cost of the prison. Children of prisoners.
